Catholic Social Teaching and Nebraska's Pregnancy Help Organizations, by Marion Miner, September 25, 2026
catholic-social-teaching-and-nebraska-s-pregnancy-help-organizations

As we enter "Election Month" and early voting begins already, many of us wonder and wrestle with the idea of how it is we can best "protect life" through our civic participation at the ballot. This question is, thankfully, answered thoroughly by the U.S. Bishops in their document, Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship.

Why Are Catholics Pro-life?

PRINCE OF PEACE | PRINCEOFPEACEKEARNEY.COM

The Catholic Church recognizes the first Sunday of October as Respect Life Sunday and the whole month is dedicated to respecting life. The question arises from people: Why is the church pro-life?

The document of Evangelium vitae 28, 1995 speaks that we are, “facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the culture of death and the culture of life. We find ourselves not only faced with but necessarily in the midst of this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life.”

What is pro-life? Pro-life means a right to life, before birth and after being born. The intention of pro-life is to show that every life matters, every person, including the unborn, has a right to life.

Historical and Social Context Historically, Catholics have been central to the pro-life movement in the United States, particularly in opposing abortion legislation in the 1960s and 1970s. Early pro-life activism was often motivated by a broader Catholic social ethic that emphasized human flourishing, social justice, and the protection of the poor and marginalized.

Saint John Paul II reminded us, we believe that "all human life is sacred, for it is created in the image and likeness of God." Aborting an unborn child destroys a precious human life which God has called uniquely into existence.

Every human being is sacred: The Church's pro-life stance is rooted in the belief that all human life is sacred, created in the image and likeness of God, and therefore possesses intrinsic dignity and value at every stage, from conception to natural death. We are called to care for the most vulnerable at every stage.

God has created every human being in God's image and likeness. Thus, every person is instilled with irrevocable dignity and thus the right to life. Jesus makes clear in the Gospels that to love God is to love our neighbors, especially those who are on the margins. Despite conventional norms, Jesus spent time with women, ethnic minorities, tax collectors, and prostitutes. He told us that to serve the poor, the hungry, and the imprisoned is to serve God.

As Catholics we oppose the legalization of direct threats to innocent life, including abortion, euthanasia, the death penalty, and unjust war. We also work for a culture that promotes the dignity of life.

LIFE BEGINS AT CONCEPTION

The Catechism of the Catholic Church emphasizes that, “human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception,” and that every human being has the rights of a person from the first moment of existence. The Catholic Church is pro-life because it teaches that every human being has inherent dignity and the right to life from the moment of conception. When we talk about conception, we mean the stage of fertilization in humans be it inside the body or outside in IVF.

Human dignity is received at the moment life begins, conception. At conception, this single fertilized egg has its own unique DNA; a human being exists. From this one tiny cell can only come one thing, a human baby! And from this moment on, through infancy and childhood all the way until old age, at every moment of their life, this person has a unique and unrepeatable dignity. Because of this, regardless of the developmental stage or where the baby is located, the life should be protected.

Abortion is a byproduct of an unjust society that does not care for women and children.

Women often seek abortions because they feel that they are not in a place where they can raise a child. Poverty, lack of healthcare, fear of violence, and coercion often make women feel as if they have no choice but to abort their child. As Catholics, we should be scandalized that in our countries it is easier to end a human life than it is to care for it. Opposing abortion is more than just making it illegal, opposing abortion means promoting a society where women, children, and family can not only survive, but thrive.

Mary's Journey - Theotokos

Mary's Pregnancy in weeks 31-33.

He may grow to about 17 or 18 inches and weigh about 4 ½ to 5 pounds by the end of these weeks. His five senses are fully active and he can control his body temperature.

He may be starting to settle into a head-down position to get ready for delivery. His immune system receives antibodies from his mother to help fight off infections for the first six months.

With her growing belly Mary may be more clumsy and her tummy may be getting itchier as her skin stretches. Using lotions, special creams or oils may help with the itching.

According to human life international (HLI), being pro-life extends beyond the unborn. The Church advocates for the protection of the sick, elderly, disabled, poor, and marginalized, reflecting the belief that all people are made in God's image and deserve care and respect.

Pope Leo XIV and other Church leaders have highlighted that a truly pro-life ethic opposes all forms of deliberate harm to human life, including capital punishment and inhumane treatment of immigrants.

When you read the Didache 2nd century says: You shall not commit murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not corrupt the young. You shall not commit fornication. You shall not steal. You shall not kill an unborn child or murder a newborn infant.

Tertulian, a church father says: for us, killing and murder are forbidden once and for all, it is not permitted to destroy what is conceived in the mother's womb. To hinder the birth of a child is a faster way to murder. It makes little difference whether one destroys a life already born or prevents it from coming to birth. It is a human being for the whole fruit is already present.

N.B; The church's mission is to defend human life over the entire course of life from conception to natural death. That is why the church constructs hospitals and sets up organizations to provide countless social services to all Americans regardless of race, creed, or national origin.
