THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day." - Jn 6:39-40

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY) | NOVEMBER 2, 2025

St. James Court 2007 of Catholic Daughters will hold its annual Fall Bake Sale on Saturday, November 8 and Sunday, November 9 in the gathering space at St. James Catholic Church, before and after all Masses. Funds raised from the bake sale are used to award student scholarships each spring. Your support would be appreciated.

We are excited to take Kearney seniors back to SEEK this year in Denver, CO! This conference offers an incredible opportunity for high school seniors to come together with college students from all over the country to worship and grow in their faith. Last year, five students experienced a transformative encounter with Jesus, and their lives changed as a result. Now, they are thriving in their Newman Centers, actively pursuing their faith during their college years.

This year, we have already tripled the number of students joining us and we need your support. Your contributions will help cover transportation, accommodations, and conference fees. Donations can be given via cash, check to Prince of Peace, or through the GoFundMe link below. Thank you for prayerfully considering supporting this meaningful journey for our Kearney seniors!

<https://gofund.me/0d269acd4>

Join us for a Hotdog Social Saturday, November 8th following the 5:00 p.m. Mass. Your choice of toppings, salad, beans, chips and dessert.

Sponsored by the Social Committee

The Book of the Names of the Dead is available throughout the month of November to all parishioners to write the names of their deceased loved ones. The book is located in the main body of the church in the corner between the sanctuary and the music area. This book is a reminder that we do not stop praying for the dead at their funeral. It is intended to help our parish community to pray for those who have gone before us with the sign of the faith.

Pope Leo XIV's intention for the month of November: For the prevention of suicide

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

Knights of Columbus®

ANNUAL KNIGHT DRIVE!

If you have ever considered joining the Knights of Columbus, the Knights will be available after Masses this weekend to answer questions and discuss membership.

Mission Statement: Together, we're empowering Catholic men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work and in their community.

Founding Principles and Core Values:

Integrity: Firm adherence to ethics, honesty, and a moral code.

Professionalism: Promoting the highest standards in all we do.

Excellence: Leading by example and constantly striving to be the best.

Respect: Treating each other with the highest regard.

Jesus said out loud: "As long as you did it to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). He proposes to you that you find him in the poorest, most neglected and most abandoned of society. What a beautiful meeting!

-Pope Francis

PUT YOUR FAITH INTO ACTION

We are men who lead, serve, protect and defend, whether we are giving out Coats for Kids, lending a hand in disaster relief efforts, supporting local pregnancy centers by donating ultrasound machines or providing top-quality financial products. Find out more about what we do today!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love. (Wis 3:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)
OR
Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

Second Reading:

But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. (Rom 5:8)

Gospel:

"For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day." (Jn 6:40)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

To live with Christ, we must die with him.
But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian?
We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.

Observances for the week of November 2, 2025

- Sunday: The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day);
Daylight Savings Time Ends
- Monday: St. Martin de Porres, Religious
- Tuesday: St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop; Election Day
- Next Sunday: The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Devotions, Explained!

God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity which exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer during Loss

O God,
In the midst of my grief, be with me.
Cover this season with Your comfort and consolation,
help me to know Your presence and Your grace.
Bring comfort to my affliction,
and hope to my heart.
Amen.

Support Emily and The Brachle Family

Recently, Emily and her family received heartbreaking news that her cancer has returned. It is not curable but it is treatable. Through it all, Emily continues to face each day with courage, hope, and trust in God's plan.

Your prayers, love, and support mean all the world to them.

In preparation for Advent, we will read and discuss Life of the Beloved by Henri Nouwen, who notes "... God is a Lover who wants to be loved. The one who created us is waiting for our response to the love that gave us our being. God not only says "You are my Beloved" but asks, "Do you love me?" From the moment we claim the truth of being the Beloved, we are faced with the call to become who we are. Becoming the Beloved is the great spiritual journey we have to make.
