

ABOUT GRAZIELA FLOR-FANJUL

WCCC ART SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

- “ I am a graphic designer... At Montgomery College, I got my Associate Degree in Art... Half way through I had no money to continue my studies, but Professor Joyce Jewell offered me an scholarship because I pushed myself in her printmaking class.”
- “For the last 10 years I have been working as a graphic designer for international development organizations. Currently I'm a manager in a consulting firm and our biggest client is USAID.”
- “Thanks to the WCCC scholarship, my American Dream became a reality. Coming from a small city in South of Brazil I never thought I would be working as a artist/graphic designer in Washington, DC.”
- “You can see my work here: www.graziflor.com , though it hasn't been updated in a while.”
