Curled Up With A Good Book Midnight Knows How to Relax

The Inheritors: An Intimate Portrait of South Africa's Racial Reckoning (2022) by Eve Fairbanks, is an exceptional book solid in research, lived experience, judgement, and wide-ranging, inclusive compassion. Eve “gets it” in every way. She comes to/at South Africa from the American South.

"She's not all over you, but she gets the job done."
