

A(nother) Tale of Saskatchewan: To Call it “Poles” is to Misconstrue the Balance the Likes of Garth Have Tried to Establish, Protect, and Sustain.

November 2023

Trevor Bearance

I have had a small, but telling, taste of what John Gormley is. I cannot bear to listen to him, “conservative” as I can be. He is a disgrace to so much for the ignorance and misguidedness he has exploited and cultivated in the (would-be) good people of this province. Maybe his “dream soul mate”—I will not imagine this “union”—idol is Danielle Smith, parlaying similar “talents” into the political triumph Mr. Gormley tellingly, impetuously came up short of. Good riddance to him. TJB

Tomorrow (09 Nov) will be Garth's last day hosting Blue Sky, a venerable provincial CBC talk-show institution kept so by Garth & crew. A real loss: Garth, so intelligent, yet humble and patient, informed and wise, has been, and will remain, a treasure. But he deserves well-earned freedom and ease. You will be missed. All the best to you & yours! TJB

Blue Sky with Garth Materie

