The Northwest Territories & Fort Smith are Definitely “North”

TJB

I took a job (Alternative Ed Teacher) at PW Kaeser High School, Fort Smith, Northwest Territories. I am pleasantly surprised and impressed. Fort Smith may literally be at “the end of the road”—at least the paved one—but then, in some (increasing?) ways, being as far away as possible from the way things are going “down South” at the other end may well be a good thing.
