Introducing Lillie Pearl

Lillie Pearl is a young cow who lives on Thomas Farm in Boring, Alabama. She spends her days dreaming about being a Country Singer and obsessing over her favorite stars (primarily Polly Partner).

The other animals on the Farm believe Lillie Pearl is wasting her time daydreaming when they already have a perfect life living on the Farm. The Farm animals begin to sing "Grazy Saturdays", a song about how great and preferable life on the farm is, compared to any other Life.

Similar message to "Under The Sea" from "The Little Mermaid".

The song also cuts into Lillie Pearl singing about wanting more than a "simple peaceful life".

Cutting back and forth similarly to Belle from "Beauty and the Beast".

After the song wraps, Lillie Pearl goes to find Peter Oinks.

Peter is playing a flight simulator that he has constructed out of old farm equipment and video games.

Peter and Lillie Pearl discuss their dreams and it leads to them finding out that Polly Partner is going to be in Nashville hosting Over The Moon, an “America’s Got Talent” style show for future country singers. Peter encourages Lillie Pearl to chase her dream. After a brief song Lillie Pearl and Peter decide to hitch hike to Earlsville with Bill the Horse.

Lillie Pearl and Peter find themselves at a truck stop in Earlsville, Alabama where a Blues Band is performing. Their guitarist/backup vocalist is out and Lillie Pearl steps in to fill the missing musician's shoes. She falls in love with blues music and is encouraged by the band's leader, Jake, to pursue it. But she insists her fate is still to be a famous country singer just like Polly Partner.

Lillie Pearl and Peter take a bus to Nashville after staying up all night talking with the Blues Bovines Band.

Lillie Pearl makes it to the Grand Poladium to audition for Polly Partner. She is rejected.

While walking around depressed she finds Jake and the band playing on a street corner.

Jake encourages Lillie Pearl to put her feelings into her music. She agrees, and begins to sing the blues.

As Lillie Pearl is singing, she catches the attention of Polly Partner.

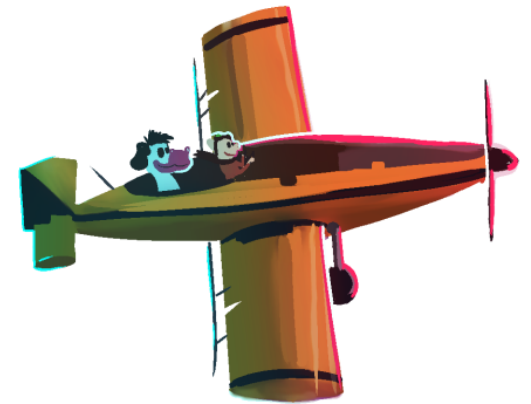

Polly Partner tells Lillie Pearl she's an okay country singer but she has the blues in her heart.

Lillie Pearl is encouraged by Polly Partner's recommendation, and decides that she and Peter need to head to New Orleans where Polly has gotten her a spot in an up-and-coming festival featuring blues singers.

Lillie Pearl and Peter use Polly Partner's old tour bus to get to New Orleans. However, they are eventually kicked off the bus as Peter drives Ollie, the bus driver, insane. He drops them off in the middle of farm country.

Lillie Pearl takes her frustration out on Peter and calls him a bad friend. Peter points out that he has always supported her dream but has never gotten the same in return. In order to arrive at the festival on time, Lillie Pearl convinces Peter to fly a nearby crop duster. It's not until they take off that they realize they were so caught up in their moment that they were actually stealing a plane.

Lillie Pearl and Peter finally arrive in New Orleans in time for the blues festival.
Lillie Pearl sings her heart out and gets a standing ovation.

Polly Partner offers Lillie Pearl a spot opening for her on her tour.
Lillie Pearl accepts the offer.

Lillie Pearl and Peter return to Thomas Farm to do one final concert before going on tour.
Lillie Pearl convinces Polly Partner to upgrade from a tour bus to an airplane, and hire Peter as her pilot. She agrees to the suggestion and Peter is ecstatic!
