“I have worked with Michelle for three years with administrative and EA recruitment and she always takes the time to talk through the role with me so she fully understands the job spec, skill requirements and personality of the team. I can be very candid with her about who will and won't work with and she never pushes an unsuitable candidate. We have become firm friends and I have total trust that she understands the culture of my team and what I look for in a candidate.”

“Michelle has always offered us a very warm and personable service, listening to our requirements carefully and providing consistently high quality candidates who are above all always very reliable. Michelle has offered a quietly supportive role, never being in the least pushy, which we of course appreciate and that is why we continue to use the service to date.”
