Announcements:

Mission Opportunity

Brinkley Heights Baptist Church in Memphis is hosting mission teams from across the country this summer. They will lead Backyard Bible Clubs and other activities as they share Jesus with children in the area. On Wednesday, June 17, Crossroads will be carrying lunch to feed the 220 teenagers and adults on these mission teams. If you would like to donate to purchase lunch items, it would be greatly appreciated. It can be added to your offering and marked BH. See Sharon Jordan if you have any questions.

Confidential Care

We will continue to collect filled baby bottles for Confidential Care through August 2. If you have any questions, please see Sharon Jordan.

Kitchen News

As preparations begin for the kitchen remodel, a table in the fellowship hall holds miscellaneous dishes left behind from various potlucks. Please check if you are missing a dish from home.

Mission Trip to Jamaica

There is a team going on a mission trip to Jamaica, February 12-19, 2027! This will be an incredible opportunity to serve, share God's love, and make a lasting impact in local communities. You are invited to be part of what God is doing. If you would like more information, please see Bro. Randy.
