INT. SELINA'S HOUSE - DAY

Selina, late 20s, looks as gay as you can get, sits down at their computer.

They read aloud while they type.

SELINA

Hey Internet, what is happening right now in tabletop?

The Internet, an incorporeal being that looks eerily similar to Selina, apparates.

INTERNET

Here is what I found for current events in tabletop news.

Internet pixelates to a different part of the screen.

INTERNET (CONT'D)

You can learn about video gaming news at any of these publications.

SELINA

No, not video games. Tabletop games.

INTERNET

Do you want actual-play Dungeons & Dragons videos?

SELINA

Not exclusively. I want to know about board games to look out for, what other tabletop campaigns are streaming right now, conventions, and anything else I might not know to look out for.

Internet gestures to different areas as they describe them.

INTERNET

You can read about board games here, tune in live to these actual-play campaigns, scroll Kickstarter for new games, and watch all of these dudes talk about D&D mechanics and how they use them.

Selina frowns.

SELINA

That is a lot of different places to pay attention to. And what about things I don't know I should know about?

INTERNET

This destination does not exist.

SELINA

Really? Nowhere?

The computer screen SHATTERS. Internet SHRIEKS.

The Tabletop News Kickstarter page emanates a radiant glow.

INTERNET (O.C.)

Oh no, my bones!

Selina shields the light from their eyes.

They blink and adjust to the light.

They peer closer.

SELINA

What the-- Selina scrolls.

SELINA (CONT'D)

(reading from the screen)

Tabletop News Kickstarter. A weekly show about all things tabletop.

They perk up.

SELINA (CONT'D)

This is exactly what I didn't know I needed!

They click "Back this project."

SELINA (CONT'D)

Backed!

Internet struggles to rise and clutches their mid-section.

They shake their fist.

INTERNET
Foiled again by brilliant Kickstarter ideas!

Selina SHUSHES and kicks Internet.
