

Poly Marching Band and Color Guard Board Members Meeting Minutes
Tuesday, September 5, 2017 Band Room

Bert called the meeting to order 6:38 p.m.

In attendance: Bert Toma, Carme Harmon, Shane Padden, Chris & Melissa Griffith, Carl & Alex Berniger, Jim Kosan, & Jennifer Hobson

REPORTS:

Bert Toma – Band President

- Preview of No Strings Attached was successful, kids did a nice job, color guard including middle school was entertaining and enough food was donated to feed everyone
- Discussed current opening of VP of communication, Jennifer Hobson stated that her and her husband would take on the position.
- A nomination for VP of communication was presented by Alex Berniger and Carme Harmon seconded and was put to vote.
- All five board members present voted and all were I and no neighs were present
- The Hobson's, Chad and Jennifer were announced as the VP of communications
- Asked for status of the rivalry game from band director, no information presented from band director

Mr. Mooring – Band Director

- Absent

Danielle Brackett – Color Guard President

- Absent

Jennifer Hobson – VP Communications

- Need access to RUSD portal, no one has access
- Website accessibility, need to ask at back to school night for web designer
- Need to transition with old VP of communication for rosters of parents
- Asked for assistance with remind to get parents to update their contact information with the band
- Need access to Facebook – Maria Choriego to get Jennifer access
- Suggested an app to get volunteers for 1st football game such as signup.com or survey monkey
- VP members present informed we needed 5 performance ready chaperones, 8 chaperones for buses, 3 seat covers, 20 prop puller volunteers

Carmela Harmon, Jim Kosan, Maria Choriego, Valerie Hernandez – VP Ways and Means Committee

- Dine outs did well over $567 dollars (372 for Chiptole and 196 for Great Shakes)
- Upcoming Dine out on September 11th with Blaze Pizza and Great Shakes, Danielle will copy flyers and Sky will place on remind
- Thursday or Friday this week Shop Riverside cards are in, discussed 2 per child and give additional cards as they sell the two or ask for more.
- Buy 5 get 1 free offer is still valid
- Yankee candle fundraiser will begin October 9th to October 23rd
- Shop Riverside should end at the end of September
- Discussed when to do a See's candy fundraiser, it was decided to do a spring event surrounding Easter
- Carme brought up snapraise but need to gather further details about the fundraiser
- Discussed bringing up raffle items or a small donation for upcoming Lester Oaks raffle materials
- The 2nd car wash suggestion with Elks Lodge was a no go
- Jim informed the board, the foundation at the Box will possibly work for Casino Night on February 10th but will have to get back to the board later with confirmation.
- Carme asked about possible raffle items for first football game
- Carme asked if band boosters had talked to Darren the booster board member from Football about raffling at football game
- Pass the shako earned $385.00 at the preview performance

Rosie & Estella Finch – VP Chaperones/Hospitality

- Absent

Alexandria Berniger – VP Uniforms

- Wrote purchase order for shoes, gloves, shirts, windbreakers.
- Orders should arrive by Friday

Chris Griffith – VP transportation

- Trailer storage is going to cost $130.00 a month or more
- Golf cart needs new batteries which run $550.00
- For performance of no strings attached, color guard and Alex want three kids to stand above props so 3 podium ladders were ordered for a total cost of $550.00
- Winter guard needs to return borrowed props from Ramona to Ramona
- A recommendation was presented to put together a band banquet fund to have funds to assist with sponsoring seniors who may not be able to afford to attend the banquet.

- Shane discussed the prop vision presented by color guard leader and Alex
- 8 LED lights and 10 battery lights, the LED lights are approximately $132.03 and the battery lights $239.80

Marjorie Anderson – Treasurer

- Absent

Next meeting – October 3rd @ 6:30 p.m. in band room

Motion to adjourn, Shane and Jim K. seconded

Meeting adjourned at 8:21 p.m.

Minutes taken by Jennifer Hobson