getting us back to the table

Our takeaway kits are designed with a single goal in mind - to make gatherings at home an easier and more enjoyable experience.

- be done in an hour or less (we've done the planning, cleaning and as much of the cooking as we can for you)
- comes with clear, straightforward instructions for preparation
- we've kept it simple -you need only a stove, an oven or what you'd find in the average kitchen.
- collect your kit a day or more in advance (because why rush?)
