HOME STAGING AND ORGANIZATION

We're officially open for business! At Clutterly, we understand the vital role that first impressions play in the real estate market and the need for our services in Lake Havasu and Mohave County. That is why we specialize in providing tailored home staging, decluttering, and organizing services to enhance the appeal of properties, enabling them to stand out from the crowd. Our mission is to create environments that evoke positive emotions, encouraging potential buyers to envision their future in these welcoming spaces.

HOME STAGING

Our home staging services are designed to make properties stand out from the crowd, leaving potential buyers seriously impressed.

We provide a comprehensive consultation and plan of action to get our clients home sold faster and for a higher price point.

DOWNSIZING & DECLUTTERING

Our decluttering services focus on removing distractions and creating a sense of space and harmony. By effectively organizing and streamlining the home, we allow potential buyers to envision themselves living in the property comfortably.

Let's Work Together! We are excited to collaborate with real estate professionals like you, providing unparalleled services to enhance your clients' buying and selling experience.

Get to know us! We will meet with you one on one or present to your on entire team how we can help you and your clients better market what is likely their most significant asset. We want to be the agents trusted ally and valued resource. Call Us Today!

ORGANIZATION & NEW HOME SET UP

We understand that the process of unpacking and organizing can be overwhelming. We carefully unpack clients' boxes, set up their new home, and help them settle in comfortably. Clients will be able to enjoy their new home without the stress of unpacking weighing them down. We also help them with pre-move packing!
