

Beloved Soul -

There is a meeting place
Come join me at the feast of Infinity
For it is delicious in its endless nuances
Of Delight and Joy
As it dances with itself
And basks in its own light of the One.

There is an array of flavors
You can pick whichever one suits your fancy
And enjoy the refined experience
Of slowing down
To taste the Nectar of this Divine Love

It is always present
Inviting you into its warmth
So you can feel intoxicated
In its field of yumminess.

As you journey through each nuance,
Like an enchanted forest
That is full of magic and beauty,
You are invited to soften your edges
To meet the deliciousness of its love
