Letter of Recommendation

I am writing to offer my recommendation for Dave Cutler, a stuntman I have had the pleasure of hiring and working with on multiple projects.

Dave is an extremely reliable, professional, capable stunt performer and assistant coordinator. Across every production we've worked on together, he has consistently demonstrated exceptional skill, discipline, and attention to safety—qualities that are absolutely essential to what we do. He comes into each job fully prepared, understands the creative and technical demands of each sequence, and executes with precision and confidence.

Beyond his physical ability, Dave is a true professional on set. He communicates clearly, collaborates seamlessly with not only directors, stunt coordinators, and performers but all other departments. Dave maintains a calm, focused presence even under pressure. His dependability allows productions to move efficiently, and his commitment to doing the job right earns immediate trust from the entire crew.

Equally important, Dave brings a strong work ethic and positive attitude to every project. He shows up ready to work, adapts quickly to changes, and takes pride in contributing to the overall success of the production—not just his own performance.

I would not hesitate to work with Dave again and highly recommend him for any stunt-related role or production. Any project would benefit greatly from having him on the team.

Please feel free to contact me if further information is needed.

Best,

Freddie Poole

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with the highest regard that I write this letter of recommendation for Dave Cutler. I had the privilege of working with Dave on my film One Fast Move, which we made for Amazon. The film revolved around the world of motorcycle racing, and from the outset, I knew we needed a motorcycle coordinator who could do it all—someone who could not only manage logistics but also bring a level of passion and ingenuity that would elevate the entire production.

From our very first conversation, it was clear that Dave was that person. He didn't just wear multiple hats—he wore them all, and when someone else's fell off, he was there to pick it up. But what truly sets Dave apart is not just his work ethic, but his ability to push beyond the expected, to invent new ways of doing things, and to turn obstacles into opportunities. That kind of innovation doesn't come from mere determination—it comes from a deep, undeniable passion.

With limited resources, Dave pulled off the impossible. He called in every favor, reached out to contacts across the globe, and made sure we had everything we needed to bring this film to life. But his contributions didn't stop at coordination. He built bikes, sourced rare parts, assembled a team of top-tier racers, and even performed as the motorcycle stunt double for our lead actor. One moment, he was hurling himself off a speeding bike in 110-degree heat, and the next, he was on the phone making sure a critical shipment arrived on time.

Dave didn't just work on this project—he poured his soul into it. He risked everything, not because he had to, but because he believed in the vision. From day one, he told me, "I'm here for you, and I'm here to make your dream a reality." And he did—over and over again. For a filmmaker, there are no words more valuable, and no partner more indispensable.

Dave Cutler is a force of nature. His dedication, ingenuity, and relentless pursuit of excellence are rare, and any team would be incredibly fortunate to have him. I cannot recommend him highly enough.

Sincerely,

Kelly Blatz

THIS IS A LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION!!

To Whom It May Concern,

Hire Dave Cutler! We all know that's the purpose of this letter and writing letters is not one of my strong skills.

Q: So what am I good at?

A: Finding the right person for the job.

I worked with Dave Cutler on ONE FAST MOVE where he was in charge of not only building the hero race bikes but also assembling the team of motorcycle racers, and doubling KJ Apa's races. Dave spent countless hours making sure our custom bikes were fast, reliable, and most importantly: SAFE. Dave made sure the skills of the other racers were of the highest talent for each specific race. I could bore you with details of the different race-classes, or of the details of the race bikes fuel intake system but now is not the time for a nap. I can tell you that Dave cares about those details and is passionate about making sure they are correct.

As a team member, Dave is always looking out for the safety of the actors and the crew. His communication about the needs to maintain high levels of safety is what I expect from all coordinators, however it is something many are lacking. Not Dave.

While my first-hand experience with Dave is centered around motorcycles, his talents reach far in many directions. In addition to fight choreography, tactical weapons training, and driving, I would trust Dave to deliver the highest expectation of the director while maintaining stringent safety standards and keeping within the show's budget.

Enough about Dave, let's get back to me. Something else I'm not good at is ending letters. With that, I will leave you to the rest of your day.

Kindest Regards,

Alex Capaldi

To Whom It May Concern,

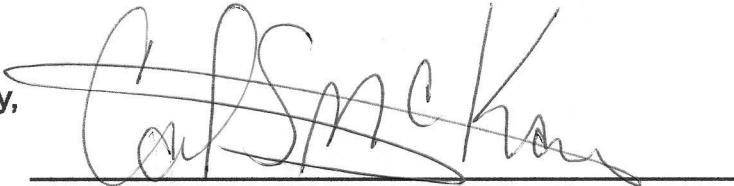

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Dave Cutler, a highly skilled stunt performer and stunt coordinator whom I have had the privilege of working with in the film and television industry. Dave is an exceptional talent, possessing not only the physical capabilities required for high-level stunt work but also the intelligence, adaptability, and common sense that make him an invaluable asset on any production.

Having worked alongside Dave on multiple projects, I have seen firsthand his unwavering dedication, professionalism, and ability to execute complex stunt sequences with precision and safety. Our professional relationship deepened into a strong personal bond following a medical incident on set, an experience that reinforced my respect for Dave's composure, leadership, and genuine care for his colleagues. His presence on set brings a sense of security, as he always prioritizes safety while maintaining the integrity of the action.

Beyond his expertise in stunt performance and coordination, Dave's skillset extends into a range of technical and mechanical disciplines. He is a highly capable motorcyclist, stunt driver, tactical, welder / fabricator—each skill adding to his versatility and problem-solving abilities. His willingness to take on challenges, coupled with his resourcefulness, makes him an exceptional team member in any high-stakes environment. Additionally, Dave has a keen understanding of budgeting, ensuring that productions maximize resources while maintaining the highest standards of safety and quality. His ability to manage costs effectively without compromising creativity or execution is a rare and valuable trait in this industry.

Any production would be fortunate to have Dave Cutler as part of their team. He is not only a phenomenal stunt professional but also a person of great integrity, reliability, and skill. I wholeheartedly recommend him for any role within his field and have no doubt that he will continue to exceed expectations in every endeavor he undertakes.

Sincerely,

Cole McKay

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To whom it may concern,

I am writing today to recommend Dave Cutler for the position of Stunt Coordinator on your upcoming project. Dave was originally recommended to me by Cole Mckay, veteran Stunt Coordinator and performer for over 30 years. I needed a talented Stunt Coordinator with not only motorcycle skills, but able to work with pyrotechnics, four wheelers, trucks, mud and dance choreography in multiple scenes. Dave not only executed each scene with perfection but choreographed all the moving parts with precision and camera direction. He hired precision motorcycle and truck drivers, who not only doubled cast but performed difficult driving tricks. Dave also advised on direction to capture the best angles and also advised production design and construction to create a picture perfect and safe environment to perform these stunts. All the while Dave paid meticulous attention to budget and provided many cost cutting measures that allowed production to afford such complicated sequences.

He is particularly skilled in managing stunt crew and has a special talent for attending to and supporting the film crew. Additionally, Dave has demonstrated exceptional leadership skills, effectively guiding his team through various challenges and ensuring successful and safe outcomes. His problem-solving abilities are remarkable, as he consistently finds innovative solutions to complex issues that arise during production. Furthermore, Dave excels in high-pressure situations, maintaining composure and delivering outstanding results even under tight deadlines. His ability to work collaboratively with others and foster a positive team environment has been instrumental in the success of our project.

Dave would be an excellent addition to any production. Please feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Kim Percival
