

Mama Croc and Hatchlings

Mama crocs are considered to be one of the best parents in the animal kingdom! After making a hole or mound nest, Mama Croc defends her nests from predators like raccoons, peccary or coati for the incubation period of 2-3 months. Once the babies hatch, Mama helps them get to the water and protects them for up to 3 weeks to 3 months from big predators, like birds.