

REFRESHING SPRING MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

400 South Cicero
Chicago, Illinois 60644

James E. Marshall, Founder

The Official Board and the Congregation of the Refreshing Spring Missionary Baptist Church is currently seeking a spiritually mature and devoted servant of God, who is called, qualified, and experienced to serve the Lord as our Pastor. Our Church is located on the Westside of Chicago, at Cicero Avenue and Van Buren Street, in the Austin community.

Our ideal candidate's characteristics include:

- A Teacher of God's Word and Scripture Ready
- Prepared to counsel, and an Exhibitor of Wisdom
- Friendly And Family Oriented
- Humble with Self-Control
- Able to handle life issues
- Prayer dependent
- Respectable, Cordial and Easy to Talk to
- A person that shows concern for people

To apply, please submit the following:

Resumes accepted until: 07.07.2022

- A resume and cover letter, including full name, present address, a contact phone number.
- Place and date of birth; Name, place and date of birth of spouse; Name and dates of birth of all children
- Education: name and address of high school and college (if applicable) graduation dates and degrees attained
- Date and place of ordination, the name of ordaining body
- List of names and addresses of all churches served, titles and dates of service
- List of offices and /or community membership, and fraternal organizations
- List of any honors received
- Name, address and phone number of current employer, and years employed
- Present salary, including benefits, and expected salary and benefits
- Name and addresses of four references (two ministers, one layperson, and one from someone that can evaluate your character and job performance).

Interested candidates should submit your resume` package to:

Refreshing Spring Pulpit Committee
PO Box: 57
Bolingbrook, Illinois 60440