About Mrs. Hart

J'kia Hart is a passionate social service practitioner, licensed minister, and certified life coach dedicated to transforming the lives of youth and adults within the foster care community. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Indiana University Northwest (IUN) in 2016 and founded Transparent Progression in 2018, a Social Service Outreach committed to addressing the systemic challenges of foster care, including housing instability, trauma, and the transition to independent adult living.

Fostering Trust

Through Transparent Progression, J'kia leads initiatives that build skills, stability, and support for those navigating foster care and beyond, because no one should age out of care alone. From Life-Skill Development to Mental Health Support and Stable Housing, TP fosters trust, restores hope, and illuminates paths to new beginnings, ensuring the vulnerable foster care population is seen, heard, and cared for.
