

MISSION STATEMENT

I Love the Kids Foundation, Inc. is a recognized 501 (c)(3) exempt Community based organization whose main purpose is the well being of under privileged inner city youth. I Love the Kids Foundation serves as a vehicle to entertain and educate our young people on the societal ills of the community they call home. Our organization has found that through athletics and education we can teach our youth discipline, self-confidence, and promote a healthier lifestyle.

THE FOUNDER

In 1999, I Love The Kids Foundation Inc. was formed by Lawrence Scott who had a vision of giving back to underprivileged kids. Growing up in the projects of Harlem, New York to a single parent with three other siblings, I was able to overcome a lot of obstacles and avoid a lot of situations that would have lead to jail, injury or even death. For me, basketball and education was my saving grace. I wanted to give other kids some of the same opportunities that I experienced. Sports enabled me to stay active and allowed me to put my energy and time into something positive. Sports helped me avoid some of the pitfalls and traps that younger children can succumb too when there is nothing positive to do. Education allowed me to keep my grades up to par so that I would be able to play basketball. Sports and Education allowed me to earn a basketball scholarship and ultimately get my college degree from a university. This is when I realized that there are a lot of other kids going through the same things that I went through and needed the same help that I received.

THE CALLING

In the year 2000, I teamed up with my partner and former college teammate Darrell Brown. Mr. Brown presently works for the Dade County School Board as a coordinator for the "Student Center for Special Instruction". Mr. Brown works with children day in and day out. His communication of routine experiences helps me visualize the necessities that kids should be provided with on a daily basis. Mr. Brown grew up with similar pitfalls coming from the inner city of Fort Myers, Florida. We decided this was our priority to help kids through there trials and tribulations and create more opportunities for them to succeed.

THE GOAL

Our goal at I Love the Kids Foundation is to bring social, economic, spiritual and educational change to our communities. Also our pursuit is to provide children with the necessary resources and support needed to improve their chances of success. This includes helping children increase their potential to reach their dreams and goals. Our mission is to provide year-round sporting activities and educational tutoring programs to children of all ages. The foundation believes that every child has aspirations and dreams. We aim to assist them in every possible way. We love the kids!

OUR PHILOSOPHY

I Love The Kids Foundation, Inc. believe in providing kids with a total sense of direction in life through education, athletics, spiritual consciousness, and community involvement. The Foundation also believes that kids are needy and have high aspirations in all their hopes and dreams, and we aim to assist them.
