Junior League Grant Available

Scranton, Pa. – The Junior League of Scranton is inviting area nonprofits to apply for its annual discretionary fund available through our Community Research Committee. The Junior League has chosen childhood nutrition and hunger as its area of focus coinciding with its mission. This year's discretionary grant will be awarded to a nonprofit organization that will utilize it for a program or project focused on childhood nutrition and hunger.

Please visit juniorleagueofscranton.org to access the discretionary fund application and guidelines. The deadline for the application is April 13, 2018.

Junior League of Scranton is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. The Junior League reaches out to women of all races, religions, and national origins who demonstrate an interest in, and commitment to, voluntarism.

For questions about the application process, please call (570) 961-8120 or e-mail Noelle Griffiths, chair of the Community Research Committee at juniorleagueofscranton@gmail.com.
