

February 1, 2021

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

The International C, LLC announces EXIM Bank brokerage representation in South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia with longstanding and prestigious firm, J Maxime Roy of Lafayette, Louisiana.

Since 1932, J. Maxime Roy, Inc. has helped clients manage commercial risk with exporting and operating internationally by providing specialized insurance policies, including export credit and political risk insurance, global property and casualty insurance, and international bonding. J. Maxime Roy, Inc. is one of the leading trade credit and political risk insurance brokers in the U.S. The company was highlighted in 2004 and again in 2018 when selected as Ex-Im Bank's Broker of the Year.

"The International C, LLC is a total solutions provider for governmental and international business development. A boutique consulting firm with extensive experience in public relations and development efforts for growing market share in defense, foreign aid, and commercial sectors. We feel very fortunate to have Craig Wooten, with his specialized expertise and skills in international trade, along with that of his staff at The International C, representing J. Maxime Roy, Inc. and extending our reach to serve clients throughout South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia" says Warren Bares, CEO of J Maxime Roy Inc.

"The ability to help our clients grow revenue and mitigate risk internationally, by coupling our expertise with one of the oldest firms in the country, aligns with our mission of being a total solutions provider to our clients," says Craig Wooten, Managing Principal of the International C.

For more information, please contact The International, C at +1-877-614-8800 or info@theinternationalc.com

Visit this page to learn more about our services.