Tammy's Touch

The other day I came across a sweet video of a mama bird using her wings as a shield from the rain pouring down on their little nest.

Nestled up under her protective feathers were three fluffy birds. Comfy, warm, and shielded from harm. To the young birds, the pinions of their mother, provide them with great comfort and care. They trusted her so they were obedient in staying underneath her wings and dwelled there until the storm passed.

Psalm 91:4 provides us with beautiful imagery of the same protective care the Lord gives to us.

Under His wings, we find sweet refuge and comfort as He shields us from the storms of life.

Because we know God and His character, we choose to go to Him to be our shield and buckler.

He not only provides the soft care from His loving feathers, but He is also the strong armor wrapped around us.

The world is full of storms. Our hearts can be hit from the waves of worry and heartache.

May we choose to dwell under the pinions of the Lord. Under His wings is our home.

Psalm 91 is a powerful Psalm that speaks of God's protection, refuge, and deliverance for those who trust in Him. It serves as a reminder that no matter what challenges or dangers we face, God is our safe place..... May Jars of Clay
