Tammy's Touch

I am in a season of surrender.

Surrendering my idea of what today needs to look like.

Surrendering my preconceived notions of what it would be like to raise teens as I step into both the good and the hard of this season.

Surrendering any idea of where I am "supposed" to be in this stage of life.

Surrendering those things I cannot control.

Surrendering the need to please others.

Surrendering my finances.

Surrendering the unknowns of the future that sometimes show up in the form of unwanted anxiety and thoughts of "what if".

Surrendering my age and coming to terms with the fact that my wrinkles are beautiful lines from my past experiences and not something to be erased or ashamed of.

Surrendering all that is outside of my control and realizing that is, in actuality, most things.

I am in a season of growth and change and acceptance.

I am in a season of surrender... Jen Thompson
