Birthdays

4-17 - Sergio Cercado

If you watch HGTV too long, you'll become dissatisfied with your home. If you stay on social media too long, you'll become dissatisfied with your life. If you watch the news too long, you'll become dissatisfied with the world.
Unplug - Pray - Read your Bible - Read a book - Spend time with loved ones - Take a walk.
Our minds are easily influenced, but we control what the influences are. Choose wisely... Mr B

I pray my children will follow the Shepherd wherever He goes.

I pray they will stay close to His side, carefully listening to His voice. I pray their eyes would be upon His every move, that they would look to Him for their care and comfort.

Oh, that they wouldn't wander from Him.

That He would lead them to still waters and replenish their souls. I pray that He would protect them from the angry prey that try to come and destroy them and that He would keep them tucked under His arm.

I pray that they would know Him so well that they can spot Him in a crowd of strangers and that they would go running to Him as He calls.

I pray they would walk with Him down paths of righteousness and not be afraid to go where He leads. That as He takes them down winding paths that they would still feel safe and protected.

Oh, I pray that they He would keep them safe when the storms come. Hiding them away until the worst winds and rains pass by. That they wouldn't be swept away but they would be at peace knowing He is by their side.

I pray that as He opens the gate they step in line. That they never wander away from His love and care. I pray they find their one true home in Him. That He anoints them with His great love and that they live together with Him, a sheep in His great pasture.

Oh the beautiful Shepherd that goes before them and makes a way. The beautiful One who calls them by name and knows them through and through. The Wonderful One who is willing to lay down His life for them.

Yes, oh how I pray they follow Him for all their days....A Heart Full of Hope
