Prayer Requests & Updates

Emma Jean Templeton, The Angels rejoiced on Friday, as they welcomed our sister in Christ, Emma Jean. She was at home with her family present.

Ida Mae Ayers, is doing well, had her follow-up with her neurosurgeon. The dressing was removed revealing 25 stitches. She has orders to take it easy for the next month when she sees her surgeon again. The Ayers advised that this has been a difficult time for them and they appreciate all the support and meals that they have received, but more than that, knowing they have a community and church family to hold them up in their most difficult times has been a blessing beyond measure.

Sergio Cercado, had his MRI and will discuss the results on the 30th of June.

Vicenta Cercado, Sergio's mother was diagnosed with gangrene on her toe. They will be amputating in the near future. They have identified another toe on the opposite foot starting the same condition, the consequence of poor circulation. She and the family need prayers as they deal with this situation. Please keep them in prayer.

Cynthia Brumm, is requesting prayers for a safe travel for her son and his family as they come to California for Scott's Celebration of Life. Cynthia was admitted to the hospital and has now returned home. Scott's service is scheduled for the end of July. This is a very difficult time for the family, please keep them in prayer.

Ron Marks, had his skin grafting, it went well and the doctors are pleased with his progress. Please pray for continued full recovery.

Brenda Plumlee, is home from the hospital and her daughter is there caring for her. She is starting a new medication and is having a difficult time breathing. Many prayers are still needed.

Alex Best, requested prayers, he is back in Mexico doing some more work. Alex goes with church groups to help people with repairs or construction.

Tammy's Touch

You can spot tourists from a distance when they visit your country. You can hear their foreign accent or language, they look different, and their behavior and culture is different. As sons and daughters of God we are pilgrims and strangers in this world, because we are citizens of His Kingdom. We should therefore not withdraw from the world, but we should talk, look, and act differently.
