Keep in Prayer

Rhonda Apodaca-School is starting back this week. Please be safe driving and pray for the kids to have a good school year.

Jean Lillich is seeing a specialist September 5th. Prayers that she can get some relief..

Lynda Gipson- has a tear in the ligament in her shoulder.

Sergio Cercado- Marilyn Villa has been diagnosed with brain cancer this week. She had been in remission from cancer prior to this. Pray that the doctors are able to help her or that God will heal her.

Sergio Cercado- pray for healing from shoulder surgery.

Brenda Plumlee- dealing with the effects of Long Covid. Pray for healing.

Darlene Hardcastle - Please put baby Zoey back in your prayers. They are waiting to re-check her heart in a couple of months.

Ida Mae- Having headaches again. Seeing a neurologist soon.

Melvin Nalls- Recovering from Valley Fever and glaucoma surgery.

Barbara Bream - Chronic medical issues.

Tammy's Touch

Why does it feel like another summer just slipped through my fingers?

The kids grew a little taller.

We made memories.

The calendar found bits of breathing room.

Still, as another August begins,

I wonder why summer went so fast.

They say time flies when you're having fun.

I used to laugh at that.

Time felt linear. Logical. Measurable.

Then I became a mom.

And I get it now.

Time is a thief.

Especially in the summertime.

No matter how many days we spend together, laughing and playing and soaking it all up...

It ends.

And just like that, the backpacks resurface. We're packing lunches and juggling sports schedules, falling right back into the routine.

It makes my heart squeeze a little tighter every year.

Maybe it's because I know now—just how fleeting this season of life really is.

And how deeply I love it.

-Her View From Home
