“Little Free Library”

Ottawa Community Housing Community Grant

nity. Through OCH community grants, this community’s park was enhanced over time with spring toys, picnic tables, benches, and garbage receptacles. Tenants of this OCH community are proud of their community and work tirelessly to make their community a nice family place for future generations. Their most recent collaboration was the installation of a “Free Little Library”, under the gazebo at Castonguay Private. The concept is to “take a book ... leave a book”. Plans are underway to install another “Free Little Library” in the Spring of 2023 on Esson Street.

Another Successful Winter Festival

Once again, mother nature came through with beautiful weather. The Winter Festival was well attended. The horse drawn sleigh rides, the hot dogs, the hot chocolate, and the smores were a hit. The creation of a snowman ice sculpture by Suguru was amazing. The event MC, Jennifer Payette, did a wonderful job in providing information and entertainment during the event. Many VIPs enjoyed the event including Mayor Mark Sutcliffe, MPP John Fraser and Councillor Jessica Bradley.

The support of volunteers was crucial in the success of the Winter Festival. There were many student volunteers from the community as well as the 137th Ottawa Scouts Group. They did an incredible job in staffing some of the events at the festival

The HCPCA was very grateful to MP David McGuinty and to MMP John Fraser for their ongoing support and we wish to also thank our business sponsors: Canopy Insurance Services, Dr. Vineet Sidhu Family Dental Care, and Charles-Albert Asselin of Bennett & Lefebvre (Team Realty - Royal LePage). We could not do this Festival without all of you!

In support of planning for future festivals, members of the community are encouraged to share feedback and ideas on the type of events they would like to see. You can send an email to HCPCA us at huntclubpark@gmail.com.

HCPCA Financial Contribution to the community in 2022

As in previous years, the Hunt Club Park Community Association provided a $1,000 donation to two schools, Robert Bateman Public School and St. Thomas More School. An opportunity for HCPCA to give back to its community considering the donation assists schools in the purchase of technology and other learning resources.

The Pavilion Food Bank was also happy to receive a $1000 donation that went to help more families during the holidays.

Ghosh Park Renewal

Over the course of the spring months, construction will take place to renew Ghosh Park. This parkette is located located between Sai and Cellini Crescents. At the March 28, 2023 HCPCA meeting, Councillor Jessica Bradley informed residents that construction will be completed by June 2023. HCPCA will keep the community informed of any Ghosh Park Opening event. Residents can expect to see a new pathway, tactile walking surface and a new bench. There will be a combination of new and existing play structures. Landscaping will consist of engineered wood fibres, play sand, topsoil and sod.
