

Code of Conduct

Introduction

In keeping with its vision and values, 'The Britannia Youth Organisation' is committed to maintaining the highest degree of ethical conduct amongst all its staff and associated personnel. To help increase understanding, this Code of Conduct details 'The Britannia Youth Organisations' expectations of employees in key areas.

Scope and purpose

This Code of Conduct applies to all contracted staff, international and local, employed by 'The Britannia Youth Organisation'. Adapted Codes of Conduct are applicable to volunteers, partners, contractors and suppliers.

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to set out the conduct expected of 'The Britannia Youth Organisation' staff whilst under contract to the organisation, and forms part of all contracts of employment. The Code is applicable at all times. Breaches of the Code of Conduct are grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

Whilst recognising that local laws and cultures differ considerably from one country to another, 'The Britannia Youth Organisation' is an International Non-Governmental Organisation, and therefore the Code of Conduct is developed from international and UN standards. 'The Britannia Youth Organisation' staff are expected to uphold local law wherever they operate, except where the Code of Conduct is more stringent, in which case the Code applies.

Mission and values

The relief of financial hardship, either generally or individually, of people living in the UK by giving advice, assistance, paying for items, services or facilities that fulfil their needs

To provide facilities to educate young people through their leisure time activities so to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacities that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society and that their conditions of life be improved

To promote peace, tranquillity and inclusivity, exclusively in the United Kingdom through the building and maintenance of youth centres which would also serve as educational institutions
