

Count on Spirit O'Three Youth Perpetual High Point Award

This award is given in memory of Count on Spirit O'Three. "Layla" excelled in the versatility events while maintaining the quality of gait necessary to also be successful in rail classes. She was a TWHBEA Adult Supreme Versatility Champion, TWHBEA Youth Superior Versatility Champion, two-time TWHBEA Super Motivated Mare of the Year, three-time TWHBEA World Versatility Show Youth Highpoint Champion, TWHBEA World Versatility Show Overall Highpoint Champion, and many time High Point Champion in both rail and versatility divisions for Walking Horse Report, Walking Horse Owners Association, Four Beats for Pleasure, and other local Tennessee Walking Horse organizations before being retired at the age of 9. "Layla" was bred by Jennifer and Gary Batts and owned by Morgan Hodge Stewart.

The winner of this high point will be a youth exhibitor and horse pair that shows the strongest ability to showcase the versatility of the Tennessee Walking Horse.

Rules and Guidelines

- This award will be cumulative over all Four Beats for Pleasure show for the year.
- Exhibitor must be a Four Beats for Pleasure member by the time of the show for their points to count.
