

PROJECT MANAGER – ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN & CONSTRUCTION

Global Luxury Brand is seeking a talented Project Manager to manage the Architectural Design & Construction process for New & Existing Retail Store Locations. The ideal candidates will have experience with Retail Store Planning, Design and Construction. They should also have a background in Architecture or Interior Design.

Key Responsibilities include:

Ensures that the Company's Architectural Design projects meet established deadlines while fulfilling Brand standards of excellence and simultaneously supporting the client's business needs.

Ensures that Brand's interior design and events projects fulfill the Company's standards of excellence.

Ensures that the Company's architectural and interior design projects achieve Brand's aesthetic ideals.

Ensures strong collaboration with Global Headquarter's colleagues while managing the evolution of architectural, interior design and furniture concepts and strategies for all U.S. projects.

Through collaboration with multiple constituencies and business partners and site visits, ensures that projects such as Boutiques, Shop-in-Shops, and special events projects, etc.) are meeting milestones and progressing towards expected delivery timeframes.

Ensures productive and positive collaboration with Retail Locations and internal colleagues in support of all projects' execution and budget integrity.

Ensures that Architectural Design and Visual Merchandising staff have the support and guidance they need to achieve success in their roles.

Key Skills and Requirements:

- Knowledge/Passion for the brand
- Project management
- Construction management
- Contractor management
- Contract management
- Vendor management
- ADA regulations
- Building codes
- Zoning regulations
- Engineering principals

Budget management
Schedule management
Site visits
Problem solving
International shipping protocols
Blueprints
Brand design parameters
Relevant computer skills including Revit, CAD, Photoshop
Attention to detail
Interpersonal skills
Oral and written communication skills
Time management
Organizational skills
Prioritization
Teamwork
Collaboration skills
Client relations
Architectural design and building systems
Interior design theory
Industrial design best practices
Negotiation skills

If interested, please email your CV to Resumes@OmniChannelCareers.com