

Exclusive Luxury Timepiece Designer is seeking a talented WATCHMAKER.

About the Position

The Watchmaker works to Service and Repair all watch movements for various brand models & calibers.

Successful candidates will have graduated from a reputable Watchmaking Program/School and passed our Applicant Bench Test.

Specific Brand watch repair experience is not required.

The Company will train all newly hired Watchmaker staff on specific brand standards and requirements.

The Watchmakers will be working in a production environment and will be held accountable to meet both quality and productivity standards on a consistent basis.

Key Responsibilities

Proactively works to make sure that Watchmaker department's productivity and quality rate goals are consistently met and maintained.

Promises that spare parts usage rate is consistent with department goals.

Guarantees that SOP's and safety protocols are followed. Ensures proper conditions of tools and equipment.

Monitors all paperwork for jobs and trays, including movements and case numbers.

Ensures that jobs and trays are properly processed through central coordination station.

Adjusting movements to ensure company timing standards are met

Disassembling, assembling, and lubricating components as needed

Performing escapement adjustments

Performing timing operations

Adjusting hairsprings to be flat and centered

Properly verifying and adjusting end shakes

Using timing equipment to accurately adjust movements' timing

Verifying and analyzing amplitude issues

Troubleshooting and correcting movements and defective/worn parts

Adjusting calendar and day-date functions

Performing non-invasive inspection of completed watch movements - including automatic device modules and train wheels

Managing personal parts inventories as required Recording notes in system appropriately

Refinishing cases

Refinishing bracelets

Completing cleaning and assembly of cases
Conducting waterproof testing
Completing cleaning, resizing, and balancing of bracelets
Visually inspecting serviced watches to assess condition and cleanliness of dials, hands, crystals, cases, and bracelets
Confirming proper working order of all functions of the movement, case and bracelet
Performing cosmetic touch-ups
Inspecting cases and bracelets to ensure required refinishing quality
Performing self-winding tests on simulator
Estimating watches for repair, service, and credits
Engraving watches for special orders
Visually inspecting aesthetics of all engravings
Attaching bracelets and straps to watch case

Skills & Experience

Graduated from a reputable Watchmaking Program/School

Must pass company Bench Test

Organizational skills

Watchmaking repair

(escapement diagnosis, adjustment and repair, hairspring adjustment, precision timing, etc.)

Hand-eye coordination

Alpha-numeric recognition

Attention to Timepiece Details

