

Basic Talking Points for Baltimore Ceasefire Outreach

WHAT IS IT?:

- Baltimoreans are making a decision to have no violence from February 2nd through February 4th.
- Celebrate life that weekend. Have coat drives, neighborhood clean-ups, big events, small community or family events... whatever you want to do... big or small.
- We know this is a BIG challenge. That's why this is also the #BaltimorePeaceChallenge.
- If you plan an event, inbox Baltimore Ceasefire 365 on FB, or email bmoreceasefire@gmail.com, & we will tell everyone that you accepted the #BaltimorePeaceChallenge by doing something in your community. Your event will be put on the public Ceasefire 365 calendar.
- This is NOT connected to the city government's Ceasefire Program.
- We are also asking each other, "What do you need in your life that will help make things better for you & your loved ones?" Why? Because we know that when we have the resources we need, we treat each other better, in general. Peace starts in our own lives... then we can easily be peaceful to other people.
- We are listening to the answers to "What do you need...?", and we're telling each other about resources that can help.

WHO IS DOING IT?

- YOU are doing it!
- This is NOT city government. Not the mayor. Not the police department.
- This is not one particular organization or person.
- This IS everyone in Baltimore telling everyone they know that we are all asking for no violence November 3rd through November 5th

WHY?

- The Baltimore Ceasefire is an effort that Baltimoreans are making to help us not have so many murders this year. This is not the answer to stopping all murder. But it is ONE way we can make things better.
- It is planned in November to give everybody in Baltimore enough time to tell everybody else. The goal is to make sure EVERYBODY hears about it.

TIPS FOR COMMON RESISTANCE

Below are common things people say to try to avoid accepting the Baltimore Peace Challenge. Please use the types of suggestions that are given to help you get through to people.

- AVOID getting into an argument or heated debate with people.
- Keep in mind that you DO NOT know people's struggles. Each person has the right to refuse to commit to peace, for reasons you may never know, or for reasons that may not make sense to you.
- AVOID shaming people's journeys.
- Avoid shaming people for where they are on their journey.
- This is a peace movement... people experience being shamed as an attack. So, in this context, remember that shaming people is an act of violence.
- Remember that a person cannot unhear this message... so as long as you have given the message with authenticity & love, YOU HAVE DONE MORE THAN ENOUGH.

Resistance: "I am not a shooter."

Example Response: "Good! It's not just about shooters, though. We are saying that all of us need to check ourselves & deal with conflicts better. Period. So we agreeing to practice being more peaceful for this one weekend... and see how it goes."

Whatever You Say: Make sure your reply explains that this effort is about everyone agreeing to be more peaceful in our thoughts, words, & actions. It's not just about shooting.

Resistance: "In Baltimore?! Yea, right."

Example Response: "Right! It seems crazy when people get killed every 19 hours in Baltimore. But the last time we tried this, Baltimore went more than 60 hours without anyone getting killed. Imagine what could happen if EVERYONE in Baltimore really talked to everybody they know about this? At least a few lives would be saved."

Whatever You Say: Keep in mind that people feel hopeless because of their experiences. Do not invalidate their experiences. Simply present the idea that another experience is possible... and that we've done it before.

Resistance: "It's not going to work because somebody in this city is going to kill somebody."

Example Response: "Ok. And this is about what each of us can do. So I'm asking if you can commit to keeping it safe around here. Don't even worry about what other people are going to do. I'm asking what you can do."

Whatever You Say: WATCH YOUR TONE when you are saying this. Remind people that this effort is about each person committing to control whatever they can control. If everyone keeps their own neighborhood or block safe, the whole city could be safe for 3 whole days... as a start.

Resistance: "Why only 3 days?"

Example Response: "We want zero murder every day. But right now, people get killed about every 19 hours. So asking for 3 days is just a start so we can show ourselves that we CAN do it."

Resistance: “Why wait until February?”

Example Response: Baltimore had ceasefires in August and November, and we're doing this one in February and one again in May to give everyone time to hear about it again.

Resistance: “Didn't the last one fail, though?”

Example Response: “After more than 24 hours of no murder, Officer Tony Mason did get killed and after that Baltimore had 48 hours where no one was shot.. Baltimore Ceasefire was able to help support his family. It wasn't a failure, also, because..... (fill in the blank with so many awesome things you know that happened in the previous ceasefire).”

Whatever You Say: Be transparent about the fact that Tony Mason died during the November ceasefire. Point out how Baltimore residents continue to come through for families if people die during this ceasefire. Feel free to point out how we learned to stop being numb (and to work harder) when he died. Say his name when you talk about him... don't just say “somebody died...”.
