

634 Wildwood Lane, Palo Alto
$4,435,000

The clean aesthetic of this North Palo Alto home is first evident in the wide entry gallery. Clear sight lines lead to the vaulted Great Room, an impressive space which spans some 40 feet and at its apex is estimated to reach 14 feet. This expansive volume is due to the specially engineered scissor truss system.

Completely rebuilt in 2003 above the flood line, this one owner home reflects modern sensibilities, with direct access to the outdoors. With 3BD/3BA, the home is sited on a 135 foot deep, 7000+ sq ft lot, maximizing garden privacy. There are brand new floors, double pane windows, skylights, a two car side-by-side garage, HVAC. Home is clad in low maintenance, smooth, minimalist integrated color stucco.

With just over 2000 sq ft on one level, space is ideal for casual gatherings, works well for those who prefer single level living. On a street lined with magnolia trees, home is near shopping, award winning schools, transportation, high tech jobs.
