Trump's 'big, beautiful bill' clears key Senate hurdle after high drama

By: Erin Doherty, As seen on CNBC

President Donald Trump's "big, beautiful bill" cleared a key procedural hurdle in the U.S. Senate late Saturday night, pushing the massive spending package one step closer to the president's desk.

The vote on a motion to proceed to final debate on the bill passed with 51 yeas and 49 nays. Every Democrat and two Republicans, Sens. Thom Tillis, N.C., and Rand Paul, Ky., voted against it.

The actual voting took hours and the measure only passed after three Republican holdouts — Sens. Mike Lee of Utah, Rick Scott of Florida and Cynthia Lummus of Wyoming — folded and voted yes.

Sen. Ron Johnson, Wis., an outspoken critic of the bill, ultimately changed his vote to a "yes" from a "no." That additional Republican vote gave the bill 51 yeas, so Vice President JD Vance did not need to cast a vote to break a tie.

The AI Advantage In Group And Voluntary Benefits

Increased sales, higher profitability... and happier clients

By: Dennis Garth & Mike De Waal, as seen on Life Health

Artificial intelligence (AI) has the potential to revolutionize the group and voluntary benefits industry, particularly during peak business periods when human resources are stretched extremely thin and with a growing number of generational segments as employees who have different needs.

By streamlining quoting, optimizing resources, and automating manual tasks, AI can help increase group insurance sales, boost profitability, and improve the customer experience. As a result, 74% of insurance executives are planning to increase their investments in AI. Insurers that seize this opportunity early on will have a critical advantage in meeting changing customer needs, optimizing operations and driving growth.

How can group and voluntary benefits insurance providers leverage AI to maximize sales and remain competitive?

US to spend $8.6 trillion on healthcare by 2033: CMS

By: Kelly Gooch, as seen on Becker's Hospital Review

CMS projects national healthcare spending to reach $5.6 trillion this year amid continued strong healthcare utilization growth, and then climb to $8.6 trillion by 2033.

The findings are from the agency's analysis released June 25 and will also appear in the print edition of the policy journal Health Affairs next month.

Why Corpus Christi, the Gateway to Padre Island National Seashore, Is Worth a Visit in Its Own Right

By: Molly O'Brian, as seen on Only in your state

Padre Island National Seashore is beautiful, but 30 short minutes away, the seashore's gateway city, Corpus Christi, is just as much fun of a destination to spend time in. Boasting more than 100 miles of shoreline and a beach for every personality, Corpus Christi, which is known as the Gulf Coast Capital, features nine beaches and a variety of things to do. This city offers 223 days of sunshine and an average temperature of 79 degrees, making it a perfect escape for those who seek sun, sea, dining, drinking, and seemingly endless opportunities to explore arts and culture.
