Tips & Tricks to Coordinating a Group Trip

Planning Stage

- Utilize a group chat, where you can include all the interested people, share links and pictures
- Propose two trip dates to your group
- Know the payment details (deposit, payment methods etc)
- List key dates (booking, deposit, flights etc)
- Include details about the accommodations and amenities
- Know additional costs and mention these upfront to the group (things like additional travel costs, shared expenses for food preparations, possible incurred damage costs)

AFTER DEPOSITS ARE PAID, BEFORE THE TRIP

- Coordinate meal plans & preparations (any food allergies?)
- Identify special requests/needs from group
- Confirm angling license purchase

WEEKS BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

- Confirm pre-shopped grocery needs
- Confirm each persons itinerary & consider what to do if travel disruptions occur (designate a contact)
- Ensure your packed food, tackle/gear & personal items do not exceed 85lbs

THE FLY IN DAY

- In most cases luggage/gear can be checked for flight the day prior; always confirm prior to flight departure
- Be at specified airport hangar 60-90 minutes prior to your flight time (unless otherwise coordinated)
- Be at specified airport hangar 60-90 minutes prior to your flight time (unless otherwise coordinated)

The trio-team at Crystal Lodge is here to help plan, coordinate and set the space for a real, trip of a lifetime. Anytime through the process you have questions, one of us is just a phone call or email away.
