This is what the campus building looks like from Walton Street.

The main reception is where the arrow is pointing.

There are also 3 disabled parking bays on site (drive towards the arrow) and there are signs. Security will need to let you through the barrier.

The entrance to the Community Wellbeing Hub is inside and to the left of the university main reception. You will see the large blue sign and glass doors shown below.

The Hub has a space where you can make drinks and heat your lunch using the microwave. The disabled toilet is the door just after the kitchen, where the arrow is.

There are also soundproof pods you can use as a quiet space, and a sofa area near the entrance.
