

Able - iQ has over 25 years of experience within the disability and mental health sector both in health and community settings.

The company's goal is to assist individuals within their unique setting to be able to gain independence and quality of life. We support developing an understanding of our clients, and an awareness of what is possible, which directly influences an individual's self-determination and feeling of empowerment.

As a registered NDIS provider, Able - iQ is committed to offering the highest standard of modern, evidence-based best practice that is in keeping with your NDIS plan and individual circumstances.

Able - iQ takes a holistic approach with a focus on teamwork and communication. Our professional team will support you in overcoming challenges, developing autonomy and realising your potential to lead a fulfilling life.
