ABOUT US

Concerned Belizeans Inc. (CBI) started in 2009 as a 501(c)3 non-profit organization with the mission to support and provide resources to Belizeans for education and community needs involvement purposes. Now in its 15th year, CBI continues to raise awareness for the needs of Belizean youth and their future.

Located in Chicago, IL, CBI has planned numerous fund raisers including the annual Belizean Tea Fundraising Party (now in its 3rd year) to raise funds to sponsor school children's tuition fees in Belize. In 2024, the average school fee tuition is now $350.00 USD per child for one year which includes tuition, uniform and books. CBI hopes to sponsor at least 100 children in 2024.

Mr. Linsford Pitts is the current President of Concerned Belizeans, Inc. He has a degree in Technology and is passionate about improving the lives of the community.

OUR VISION

With so many Belizeans living in Chicago, Concerned Belizeans, Inc. (CBI) hopes to bring various communities together in order to support and sponsor those in need of help in Belize. CBI strives to build a better community one child at a time. The youth are our future so by investing in them we help build a better Belize.

OUR MISSION

01

To assist and support Belizean Children by providing educational opportunities, scholarships, and mentorship through a variety of programs that promote and develop self-esteem in conjunction with community involvement and empowerment.

02

Raise awareness of community outreach and networking both in the U.S. and abroad to help aid those in need by in-kind donations, support and above all - kindness.
