PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Continuing To Make A Difference"

From the desk of President Barbara.....

Sixty-one days....yes, that's right, just sixty-one days left in 2013. I'm already seeing references to Christmas specials on TV and the stores are advertising those holiday events and the don't miss toys for "every little good girl and boy...."

I love the holidays, everywhere there is excitement in the air and no more so than Mesquite Club. For our October Tea, Dr. Green was absolutely charming and he wasn't the only man in the house. I love seeing men at our events, let's make that a habit. We had to set out more chairs, what a wonderful occurrence. Ways and Means held an event to be proud of. Jeanne Greenawalt and her committee spoiled us with a Chef Brandon lunch and a Silent Auction that held many treats and no tricks! Plan your personal schedules so that you don't miss anything going on at the Club. It has been wonderful to see some faces that have been absent for a while and some new faces at every event. We are growing and we can be proud of our organization, not only for our good works in the community, but also for being a special group of women that really enjoy each other, it's like a House Party!

We have an awesome year planned for you and your guests. Let it be said that "laughter is the best medicine". November 8, we have the pleasure of listening to the tales of comedienne Phyllis Diller's personal secretary of many years, Robin Palmer. For those that enjoy the beauty of the Southern Nevada landscape, we have Artist/Naturalist Sharon Schafer on November 1. November officially starts our Club's holiday season with our annual Holiday Craft Auction on Friday evening November 15 at 5:30 pm. The purchase of your ticket provides a buffet dinner, an auction paddle, an open bar and raffle opportunities. This has become a holiday tradition for me and my girls....don't miss out! November 22 and 23 is our annual Holiday Craft Sale following the "Power of Touch" presentation by Massage Therapist, Annie Weisman at 1pm. Both of these holiday events are open to everyone, (men too) and we encourage you to bring your friends, 'tis the season for shopping and sharing ..... bring guests to everything, we love new friends!

I wish you the blessings of a full table and loving hearts around it as you celebrate Thanksgiving this year, Barbara.

Vampire Tony!

November 22 is the Opening Day of Mesquite Club's "Holiday Craft Sale," following our regular meeting.

We will also have special invited guests, members of the American Association of University Women, (AAUW), Las Vegas branch.

Please introduce yourselves and show them some good 'ole Mesquite Club hospitality.

EVENING: CHAIR LETTER

Dear Evening Angels,

October has been a busy month at the Mesquite Club. Thanks to all who participated in our October 1 meeting with a wonderful speaker on the Organ Transplant program. What made Becky Mintz' talk even more inspiring was that she shared her personal story of receiving a heart transplant! We also had the opportunity to exercise our right to vote and have our voices heard on the proposed Bylaw and Standing Rule changes for the Mesquite Club. Our ballots were sealed and given to Jan White, the Bylaws Committee Chair, to be opened and counted with the official vote at the October business meeting.

Be sure to watch your email and this newsletter for details of Evening Mesquite activities (if you have not been receiving emails, please let me know.) Even better, please plan to attend programs, meetings, workshops, and any event that you are able to. You will be in the know and receive the rewarding fulfillment of the good work we are doing!

October 15 was our first Ways and Means fundraiser – "HALLOWEEN BUNCO"! It was a fun evening of good food and good friends (some old, some new) and lots of excitement! Bonnie Utton and Pam Ivey, our Ways and Means co-chairs, and their hard working helpers put on a great party. We appreciate all of their efforts! Also a big thanks goes to all of you who came, brought your friends and family and supported our raffles. Please spread the word and invite them back for the Holiday Craft Auction, our 50's Party in March and Bingo in April –even better sign them up to be new members!

November 5, we are honoring the military and collecting items for the USO-McCarran Airport. See ad on page 4, with a list of items needed. Put your items in the flag box container, and fill out the participation sheet. Bring family photo(s) of your military heroes for us to honor. If you don't have one, I'm sure there are some of us who would be glad to share. We will have some surprises too.

November 12 is our Holiday Craft Auction WORK meeting, with set-up Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The HOLIDAY CRAFT AUCTION will be on FRIDAY NIGHT!! It will start with HAPPY HOUR at 5:30 pm. Co-Chairs are Angie Wollnick, Stephani Zimmerman, Connie Macauley and Judy Stebbins. Pat Garcia will be in charge of the Volunteers for the night of the event. All are invited to attend the HCA planning meetings. The theme "HOLIDAY MAGIC" with snowmen, black hats, and lots of sparkle and glitter is being used for decorations, invitations and raffle tickets.

NOTE: Our second monthly meeting will be Tuesday November 12. (we'll have a couple weeks off to celebrate Thanksgiving after the Holiday Craft Auction.)

If you are available some Fridays, please try to attend some of the great daytime Mesquite meetings and fundraisers. Watch your newsletter for upcoming events and speakers. Remember Friends are Angels in disguise and together we can do amazing things! Be kind to one another. I look forward to seeing you all soon!

MAKE A DIFFERENCE WHENEVER, WHEREVER AND HOWEVER YOU CAN!

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR:

In this time of Thanksgiving, I am thankful for all of my wonderful Mesquite Sisters.

We have a lot of exciting things coming up. Be sure to print out the calendar page so that you can keep track of what we have going on each month.

Our website is up and Linda Shapona has done a great job. Please check it out.

Reminder, when you bring donations to the clubhouse, please remember to fill out a donation sheet. This is for tax purposes for the club.

Remember to invite family and friends to our Holiday Craft Sale Friday November 22 and Saturday November 23.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving. I look forward to seeing you at a meeting soon.

Enjoy the photos. Come and join the fun and bring a friend.
