PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Continuing To Make A Difference"

From the desk of President Barbara.....

Happy Spring Everyone! Can you believe it? March 20 is the first day of Spring. How fast our time is going.

We closed out February with a very special event by the Ways and Means Committee at Spanish Trail Country Club. We'll be talking about the luncheon and fashion show and silent auction for a long time, Kudos to Jeanne Greenawalt and her committee, and a high five to those that scored a deal on the silent auction items.

Our big Spring Event is always the annual Rummage Sale. My historians tell me of its small beginning with the Evening Mesquite gals out in the parking lot fighting the dust and wind. It quickly moved indoors and has become a signature event for the neighborhood and diehard garage sale buffs. I hope you have been cleaning out your closets and garage in anticipation of this event. Please remember to box up your donations and place them at the back exit door. Anything is appreciated. The proceeds of this sale are a big portion of our annual operating budget, so please donate, work and shop! This is also another avenue to keep the Mesquite Club name out in the public eye. Ilene Baker and Pat Garcia are the co-chairmen this year. Please call them with any questions you might have, (or offers of help.)

March is also the month that we take a close look at new club leadership for the coming year. This is an exciting time for the club. I hope many of our new members will take advantage of this opportunity to become more actively involved in the administration and direction of the club. We have had many new members join us this past year and in doing so they are helping us to put a fresh face on our traditions. The club has both elected and appointed positions to be filled. Take the time to read in your program roster books the listing of leadership opportunities available to you.

The GFWC annual photography contest and our club's Art day is also coming this month. Beth More and her committee have been planning a very special program for you so don't miss out and for those of you that enjoy taking photos – this is when you get to shine and show off your artistic side through photography. We'd love to see pictures of your vacation or the sunrise from your porch or.....whatever. Beth has all the rules and this will be a juried show.

We have so many wonderful activities and events for our members to enjoy this month. We did have to cancel one though. I'm sorry to say the Mardi Gras Dance Party scheduled for March 28th won't be happening this year, but maybe another time.

You all are so wonderful that I look forward to each time we get together. I'll see you soon at the Rummage Sale!

"Continuing to make a difference." Barbara

EVENING: CHAIR LETTER

Dear Evening Angels,

We're moving in to a busy time of year. We look forward to spending quality time together at the Mesquite Club. We'll have lots to do – projects, community service, special meetings with interesting speakers, tasty food and beverages, fundraisers and most of all enjoying each other's friendship!

On February 4, 4 E Kennels gave us a most enjoyable presentation –“Our BEST FRIENDS CAN BE VOLUNEERS TOO.” Jeannette Forrey told us of her passion for breeding and training Golden doodles as service dogs.

On February 18, our program was “TANTALIZE YOUR TASTE BUDS” with a food demonstration. Unfortunately Chef Robert has been seriously ill and was not able to be with us. Instead we had Chef Linda Burns, who is a caterer. She did a demonstration of a variety of dishes that intimidate the average cook but are surprisingly easy to prepare. Our sampling of her culinary skills was a highlight of the evening.

Our second Ways and Means fundraiser of the year will be held SATURDAY night March 1, 2014. A not-to-be-missed “FABULOUS FIFTY'S PARTY” will be held at the Clubhouse at 6 pm. Everyone is invited, so please be sure to bring your family and friends! Lots of good food, entertainment, games, contests, raffles, surprises, and of course some good tunes are planned. Cost is $15/$25 for you and a non-member or two non-members. (Dress optional –rolled up jeans, t shirts, poodle skirt, leather jacket, capri pants, or anything comfortable) This is not a couple's event, but partners are welcome. Please RSVP to Betty Utton at 236-1216 or me.

On Tuesday March 4, Karen Ziegler and her Community Service group will have a hands-on project for us to do. Hope you will join us to make some cheerful flowers in tea cups/containers for the ladies and mugs of candy for the gents serviced through the Senior Charities organization.

The Scholarship Committee will be selling See's candy for Easter. Arlene McCroy will be at the Day and Evening Meetings to take orders and accept payments. There are some cute and inexpensive items available that will make great gifts for your friends and family.

The Annual RUMMAGE sale is coming this month. Please check your closets, cupboards and garages for some “treasures” or anything you can live without. It will help if you bring your donations boxed for easier storage. Volunteers will be needed to help set up – sorting, pricing, organizing and placing items from March 17 – 20, 2014. Our regular meeting Tuesday, March 18, will be a special work meeting for the Rummage Sale. March 21 – 23 (Friday-Sunday) is the actual sale and more volunteers will be needed. Let's do our part to help make this a huge success!

REMINDERS:

- The Nominating Committee is waiting for your self- nomination form to let them know what you would be interested in doing with the club next year. Please be open to suggestions and willing to share your talents to make the most out of your time with Evening Mesquite.
- Community Service collections continue for Ginger's Beauty bags, box tops for education, used glasses and cellphones, Doris French Elementary School - books and supplies and paper products for Shade Tree.
- Check the Mesquite Club calendar for interesting daytime meetings, fundraisers, luncheons, teas and speakers.
- Watch your email for updates from me during the month and if you're on line also visit the Mesquite Club website: www.mesquiteclub.com

Thanks to all of our Evening friends (Angels in disguise) for your hard work and dedication to the Community, Mesquite Club and each other!
