PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Continuing To Make A Difference"

From the desk of President Barbara....

We had a busy March and I hope you have all had a chance to participate in some of the activities happening at the Club. The highlight, of course, was the Rummage Sale. This is the biggest event of the year where both the evening and day gals are hard at it, working side by side to pull it off. I want to thank Ilene Baker and Pat Garcia and the others that spent so many hours making this annual event a success. This is a premier event that requires the entire membership to participate in some way. Many of you not only donated, but worked and purchased. Some of you were kind enough to bring provisions on a daily basis to keep the workers fed. It is now time to lay that one to rest and look forward to what's in store in the next couple months.

You have, no doubt, heard the proposed slate of officers for the new year that was presented at our March business meeting. Many of you will be asked to fill appointed positions and tea committees and to be part of the various larger committees that work throughout the year giving us fun things to do and projects to work on. Please be thinking about which committees you would like to be a part of, so when those questions are being circulated you already have your answer. Cathi Poer has already started around the new Tea Committee sign up sheet so hurry and get your first choice down on paper. April holds in store voting for our new officers. The nominations remain open until voting day and at press time there is one position open. Additional nominations for any of the other offices may be added also. April will not bring us showers, but it will certainly bring us our beautiful Garden Tea. This is an event I look forward to because of all the ladies dressed in hats. I've never been in a community where the ladies still dress up with Spring hats. It is a tradition that should never diminish, a holdover from earlier days that lends itself to graceful times. I have fun keeping a watchful eye open throughout the year when out shopping, looking for my next Garden Tea hat. I have mine, do you?

I don't want you to miss out. April 4 is our last Tea of the year. The Tea and the Garden Tea are some of our final opportunities for you to bring guests and potential new members to Mesquite Club.

Sunday, April 6, is a very special Mesquite Club event. Mesquite Club is hosting a signature Nevada 150 Event, a Nevada only author/artist book signing and "meet and greet" at 2 pm. Mary Gafford and Sue Churchill have been organizing the book signing and watercolorist Mary Shaw is the artist coordinator. October 31, 2014, is the 150 year anniversary of becoming a state. Events are being held statewide throughout this commemorative year. Reno author Patty Cafferata, daughter of well known politician Barbara Vucanovich, will be joining us as well as Dr. Green from CSN and others. Refreshments are hosted by Southern Nevada Women's History Project. The authors will be sharing excerpts from their books which are for sale, and the paintings on display are for purchase.

Please mark your calendars for the GFWC State Convention just down the road in Henderson at Revere Country Club in the Anthem area on Saturday May 17. There is a "Meet and Greet" on the evening of May 16, which includes refreshments and raffles. Joan Powell will take your reservation. The cost is only $45 which includes your meal. I suggest we try some carpooling from the Clubhouse for the day event. Call Joan with any questions and give her your money this month. Let's support Green Valley GFWC, our hosts of the Convention, and meet and enjoy our fellow club sisters. (See ad page 10)

With a Federated smile let's be

OFFICIAL SESQUICENTENNIAL EVENT at MESQUITE CLUB

Save the date of Sunday, April 6, 2014! An official Sesquicentennial Event is to be held from 2 till 5 pm at The Mesquite Clubhouse, 702 East St. Louis Avenue. Nevada artists and writers are to participate in this FREE Cultural Arts event.

Major watercolor artist and teacher, Mary Shaw, is a presenter. She and some of her students will display watercolor paintings. Mesquite members exhibiting their paintings are: Barbara Bolling, Sue Churchill, Mary Gafford, Flo Mlynarczyk, Patricia Price, Carolyn Schmalz and Mary Shaw. Historic Nevada will be the theme of the art show. Some art will be available for sale.

Eight Nevada writers will be sharing their literary talents at this event. They will be presenting their books; attendees will have the opportunity to purchase their books. Dr. Linda Miller, noted for her portrayal of Helen J. Stewart, is attending in period attire. She has agreed to leave that persona long enough to promote her book "Early Las Vegas." Linda proudly states she is donating a portion of book sales to Clark County's historic Mormon Fort, location of the Stewart Ranch and of the Helen J. Stewart statue.

Dr. Michael Green, award winning CSN history professor, is another great draw. Whenever he speaks he makes Nevada history come to life. He is offering an intimate preview of his Nevada text which is being published in 2014.

"Asphalt Memories" by Heritage Museum Curator Mark Hall-Patton is a favorite! He is going to share insights on origins of numerous street names in Clark County.

Patty Cafferata, established Nevada writer from Reno, is to share various publications with attendees. Among them are her latest book "Goldfield Hotel and The Heyday of Piper's Opera House in Virginia City." She has authored articles about her mother Barbara Vucanovich also.

Fern Jennings is bringing her publication "Your Loving Son, ED." A publication very close to her! The book is a graphic compilation of letters her husband wrote his mother while he was serving his country during World War II.

Third generation Nevadan Virginia Deezy Tobiasson is sharing her three-volume work "Settling Along The Muddy Valley: A 145 Year History From 1865 TO 2010." Very interesting photos are included in the work. Mrs. Tobiasson, a current resident of Overton, provides many historical facts within her publications.

For suspense lovers longtime Nevadan Nancy Sansone is bringing her novel "Calling Her Name" with its Las Vegas setting. Already Nancy is writing a sequel to this!

Also available for sale are "Skirts That Swept The Desert Floor" and "Steadfast Sisters of The Silver State." These books each hold biographies of 100 Nevada women that contributed to the state's history. Past state president of Nevada Women's History Project and current Mesquite Club member Joan LeMere is in charge of book sales.

Mesquite Club officer and current SNWHP President Nancy Zangl is assisting with the light refreshments. Mesquite Club President Barbara Lacy has offered the historic Mesquite Club setting for this official Sesquicentennial Cultural Arts Event that is FREE to the public. Mesquite Club members Sue Churchill, Mary Gafford and Mary B. Martinez compose the Sesquicentennial Planning Committee.

Remember the Sesquicentennial happens only every 150 years! Do not miss this one! It is FREE!

EVENING: CHAIR LETTER; BINGO

Dear Evening Angels,

We're in the homestretch of our club year and already starting to think about next year.

Spending quality time together at the Mesquite Club has been most rewarding. We've had lots to do – projects, community service, special meetings with interesting speakers, tasty food and beverages, fundraisers and most of all enjoying each other's friendship!

Our second Ways and Means fundraiser of the year was held Saturday night, March 1, 2014. It was definitely a "FABULOUS FIFTY'S PARTY." I'm so sorry more of you could not attend. There was a fifty's soda shop buffet and entertainment by the "Big Bopper" and our own Connie M belting out "One Fine Day" (I'm still singing it myself in the car and in the shower). The Hula hoop contest, twist contest, and bubblegum blowing contest were as fun to watch as participate in. We all got moving with the "last man standing" 50's trivia contest and then trying to do the Hand Jive! The highlight of the evening was Musical Chairs with some serious contestants – it was hysterical! There were some rolled up jeans, white t-shirts, poodle skirts, neck scarf's, Capri pants, and even a movie star outfit. To top it all off, Fox 5 News was there filming the whole thing! Hope you had a chance to see us on the news. Thank you to Bonnie Utton, Ways and Means Chair, and her Committee for a very special night.

On Tuesday, March 4, Karen Ziegler and her Community Service group had a hands-on project for us to do. Not everyone could stay after the Business meeting, but those who did produced some beautiful floral arrangements in small watering cans and pots. These are being given to Senior Charities to distribute to their participants as a cheerful reminder that we are thinking of them. Thanks to Connie Sue Hines for her Flower arrangement demonstration and helping us with our project.

The Scholarship Committee will be selling See's candy for Easter. Arlene McCroy will be at the Day and Evening Meetings to take orders and accept payments. There are some cute and inexpensive items available that will make great gifts for your friends and family.

Helping with the Annual Rummage sale kept us busy in March. Thanks to all who donated items, help set up, worked at the sale and purchased some treasures.

REMINDERS: The Nominating Committee will be presenting the Slate of Evening Officers/Chairs for 2014-2015 for us to vote on at our April 1, 2014, meeting. We will also be able to vote on a sealed ballot for the General Mesquite Club Election which will take place at the Business meeting Friday, April 11, 2014. We appreciate everyone who has stepped up to fill an office and is willing to share their talents with us. We will also be selecting the charity we will be raising funds for at our Holiday Craft Auction in November, 2014. Recommended Charity information should be given to Judy Stebbins by March 30, 2014 to prepare for this vote. Another project for that evening is to work on Ginger's Beauty/Hygiene Bags.

"PRICE IS RIGHT BINGO" has been changed from April 15, 2014 to the fourth Tuesday, April 22, 2014 due to conflicts with Holy Week, Easter vacations and Passover. Bonnie Utton and Pam Ivey, Ways and Means Co-Chairs will need all of us to pitch in. Be sure to invite all of your friends, co-workers and relatives to help make this event a success!

Remember to watch your email for updates from me during the month and if you're on line also visit the Mesquite Club website: www.mesquiteclub.com.

Thanks to all of our Evening friends (Angels in disguise) for your hard work and dedication to the Community,

Mesquite Club and each other!

"MAKE A DIFFERENCE WHENEVER,

WHEREVER AND HOWEVER YOU CAN!"

The Fashion Show was a lovely event however, Barbara Lacy our President was not afforded the amenities and courtesies that protocol states a President is due. She feels that the club owes our President Barbara Lacy an apology due to the lack of recognition at the event as she was not placed at a head table nor was she introduced or asked to speak. In the future the President of the Mesquite club should be recognized at all club sponsored events.
