

Conditions

1. The Probation Officer must identify the candidate as a probation client in good standing with Probation and the Court.
2. Eligible expenses are limited to tuition, books/related supplies, parking or transit fees and student health insurance.
3. All awards will be paid directly to the probation client after proof of enrollment of the fall semester/term is provided. No payment will be made to the applicant for previously incurred educational expenses.
4. A previous scholarship award winner may reapply for subsequent scholarships provided they maintain a 2.0 GPA and all other scholarship requirements have been maintained.
5. Scholarships are granted based on availability of funds by the V.I.P. Inc. Scholarship Committee.
6. Scholarship applications are due May 15th. Applications received after that date or incomplete applications will not be considered.

Please complete the answers to the following questions on a separate piece of paper and must be included with your application:

1. Why do you deserve this scholarship?
2. What are your future career goals?
3. How has your period of probation influenced your life?

Additional items required to be attached to your application:

1. The applicant must submit a letter of recommendation from school or a reputable personal reference (minister, mentor, etc.).
2. Proof of acceptance or enrollment to the school or program. Previous scholarship recipients should provide proof of grades.
3. Submit proof that court ordered restitution has been addressed or paid in full.

Probation Officer please submit ALL the aforementioned required materials to V.I.P. Inc., Po Box 881141 SD CA 92168 or email to volunteersinprobation.inc@gmail.com. Applicant's name, address, and phone number must be at the top of each page submitted.

Please direct questions to V.I.P. Inc., at volunteersinprobation.inc@gmail.com.