WHAT'S AT STAKE

Why this midterm matters

435
U.S. House Seats

35
U.S. Senate Seats

36
Governors

1,000s
State and local offices: legislators, judges, school boards, prosecutors, sheriffs

Midterms decide the leaders who set budgets for schools, health care, housing and policing, and who write the rules for how we vote. Yet turnout drops sharply: about 52% of eligible citizens voted in 2022, compared with 67% in 2020 (U.S. Census Bureau).

> Your vote is the most important currency you have. It is the one thing every citizen holds equally, regardless of income, zip code, or last name. When we deposit that currency together, collectively, as a community, we get the government we vote for.

SAMPLE BALLOTS

What's on Your Ballot?: A Practice Ballot for Each State

Five slides show which measures touch housing, health care, education, public safety, criminal justice, the economy and voting. Then 13 state slides show the offices on every ballot and each statewide ballot measure in plain words, with YES / NO ovals to practice. Use them in study sessions and Make Your Plan Sunday.

1. Look up your sample ballot with this link. It lists every candidate and local race for your address. (vote.org)

2. Read each measure's full text and the official voter guide before deciding.

3. Mark your choices on your sample ballot and bring it with you. Paper notes are allowed in most states.

Statewide measures by state

Arizona	8	New York	0
California	14	North Carolina	3
Florida	3	Ohio	1
Iowa	1	Pennsylvania	0
Michigan	2	Texas	0
Nebraska	4	Virginia	3
New Jersey	0

Practice ballots for education only; not official ballots. Measures as certified by Sept 2026.

NAACP.

Housing and Health Care On the Ballot

Housing

Ask: Will this change rent, home prices, property taxes or the supply of affordable homes where we live?

California Prop 1: $11.25B bond for affordable housing and veterans

California Prop 37: $25B bonds for middle-income home loans

California Prop 45: Faster environmental review for projects

Florida Amendment 3: Raise the homestead exemption; cap non-homestead assessment increases at 5%

North Carolina Amendment: Let the Legislature limit local property tax increases

Races that shape it: Governor, Legislature, county and city officials, U.S. Congress (housing vouchers, fair-lending laws)

Health care

Ask: Does this change access to care, clinics, coverage or medical research for our families?

California Prop 38: $8.4B for immunology research

California Prop 44: Clinics must spend 90% on services

Virginia Amendment: Reproductive freedom: protect decisions on pregnancy, birth control, abortion and fertility care

Races that shape it: Governor (Medicaid), Legislature, Insurance Commissioner (CA), U.S. Congress (Medicaid, ACA)

Education and Public Safety On the Ballot

Education

Ask: Does this change school funding, class sizes, what students learn, or who can take part in school programs?

Arizona Prop 318: Assign school sports teams and facilities by biological sex

Arizona Prop 320: Require large school districts to spend 60% of budgets on instruction

California Prop 3: Extend high-income tax rates past 2031 for schools

Nebraska Initiative 442: Separate K-12 and college sports teams by sex (constitutional)

Races that shape it: Governor, Legislature, state superintendent (AZ, CA), state and university boards (MI), school boards

Public safety

Ask: Will this make our neighborhoods safer, and how will it be enforced in our communities?

Arizona Prop 317: Designate drug cartels as terrorist organizations under state law

Arizona Prop 319: Ban photo radar traffic enforcement

Races that shape it: Governor, Attorney General, sheriffs, district attorneys, city and county officials

Criminal Justice and Incarceration on the Ballot

Criminal justice

Ask: How does this affect sentencing, incarceration, reentry and the rights of people coming home?

Virginia Amendment: Voting rights: restore voting rights on release from incarceration for a felony

Races that shape it: Governor (pardons, rights restoration), Attorney General, district attorneys, judges

Coming home? You may be able to vote.

In CA, MI, NJ, NY, OH and PA, people on parole or probation can vote now.

In AZ, FL, IA, NE, NC and TX, rights return when the sentence is complete.

In Virginia, people apply to the Governor today; the Nov 3 amendment would make it automatic on release.

Details by state: slide 28.

Economics and Taxes On the Ballot

Economy and taxes

Ask: Who pays, who benefits, and which services such as schools, transit and health get more or less money?

Arizona Prop 141: Ban taxes or fees based on miles driven, and mileage tracking

Arizona Prop 316: Cap city sales tax on food at 2%; increases need voter approval

Arizona Prop 320: Require large school districts to spend 60% of budgets on instruction

California Prop 2: Change rainy-day fund rules

California Prop 3: Extend high-income tax rates past 2031 for schools

California Prop 40: One-time tax on billionaires' wealth

California Prop 41: Audits of voter-approved special taxes

California Prop 42: Ban new state personal property taxes

California Prop 43: 2/3 vote for local special taxes

California Prop 45: Faster environmental review for projects

Florida Amendment 1: Raise the limit on the state's rainy-day fund (to 25% of general revenue)

Florida Amendment 2: Exempt farm equipment from property taxes

Florida Amendment 3: Raise the homestead exemption; cap non-homestead assessment increases at 5%

Iowa Amendment: Require a two-thirds vote of the Legislature to raise income tax rates

Nebraska Initiative 440: Allow online sports betting through licensed racetracks

Nebraska Initiative 441: Define and regulate online sports betting

North Carolina Amendment: Cap the state income tax rate at 3.5%

North Carolina Amendment: Let the Legislature limit local property tax increases

Races that shape it: Governor, Legislature, Treasurer, Comptroller or CFO, U.S. Congress (tax credits, SNAP)

Voting and Civil Rights On the Ballot

Voting and Civil Rights

Ask: Does this make it easier or harder for every eligible person to vote, and to be treated equally?

Arizona Prop 142: Prohibit diversity, equity and inclusion policies in state and local government

Arizona Prop 144: Require government ID to vote, including by mail

Arizona Prop 318: Assign school sports teams and facilities by biological sex

California Prop 4: Allow public financing of campaigns

California Prop 5: End successor elections in state recalls

California Prop 39: Voter ID and citizenship checks

Michigan Proposal 1: Hold a convention to rewrite the state constitution

Michigan Proposal 2: Limit political contributions from utilities and large state contractors

Nebraska Amendment 1: Extend legislative term limits from two to three terms

Nebraska Initiative 442: Separate K-12 and college sports teams by sex (constitutional)

North Carolina Amendment: Require photo ID for all voters, including mail ballots

Ohio Issue 3: Add a photo ID requirement for voting to the Ohio Constitution

Virginia Amendment: Marriage: repeal the same-sex marriage ban; two adults may marry regardless of sex

Virginia Amendment: Voting rights: restore voting rights on release from incarceration for a felony

Races that shape it: Secretary of State, state supreme courts, Legislature, U.S. Congress (voting rights law)

DON'T VOTE ALONE

Make Your Plan to Vote. Bring 5 Friends.

- [ ] Confirm I am registered at my current address
- [ ] Choose how I will vote: early, by mail, or on Election Day
- [ ] Find my polling place and its hours
- [ ] Check what ID my state requires
- [ ] Look up my sample ballot and research every race, including local ones
- [ ] Arrange time off, childcare or a ride
- [ ] Bring 5 friends: invite them, check their registration, vote together

Check registration at naacp.org/vote

Early in person

Best for: Flexible schedules; avoid lines
Watch for: Sites and hours differ from Election Day

By mail

Best for: Homebound voters, travelers, shift workers
Watch for: Request and return deadlines; signature rules

Election Day

Best for: Voting alongside your community
Watch for: Your assigned polling place only; plan for lines

NAACP

VOTER RIGHTS

Know Your Voting Rights

In line when polls close?

Stay in line. You have the right to vote.

Name not on the list?

Ask for a provisional ballot. Never leave without voting.

Need help voting?

If you have a disability or trouble reading, you may bring a helper of your choice (not your employer or union rep).

Accessible voting

Every polling place must offer accessible voting. Ask for the accessible machine.

Made a mistake?

Ask for a new ballot before you cast it.

No intimidation

No one may threaten, harass or block you from voting. Report it right away.

ID rules, felony-conviction rules and language help vary by state. Returning citizens: see slide 15.

NAACP.

RETURNING CITIZENS

Returning Citizens: You May Already Be Able To Vote

Vote unless currently in prison for a felony

California · Michigan · New Jersey · New York · Ohio · Pennsylvania

On parole or probation? You can register and vote now.

Vote once your sentence is complete

Arizona* · Florida · Iowa · Nebraska · North Carolina · Texas

Complete means prison, parole and probation are finished. Then register again.

Must apply to have rights restored

Virginia

Apply to the Governor through the Secretary of the Commonwealth. More than 66,000 people had rights restored this summer. A Nov 3 amendment would make restoration automatic on release.

* Arizona: automatic after a first felony once probation or prison is finished and restitution is paid; two or more felonies, apply to a judge.

 Florida: all terms must be complete, including fines, fees and restitution; murder or felony sexual offenses require clemency.

 Iowa: fines, fees and restitution are not required; homicide convictions must apply to the Governor.

In jail awaiting trial or for a misdemeanor? You can usually still vote by absentee ballot. Check your status: restoreyourvote.org or 866-OUR-VOTE.

STAYING WITHIN IRS RULES

IRS do's and don'ts for 501(c)(3) churches

DO

- Hold voter registration drives open to everyone
- Offer rides to the polls to all, not selectively
- Host candidate forums that invite every qualified candidate
- Preach and teach on moral issues and public policy
- Support or oppose ballot measures (limited lobbying)
- Share neutral voter guides covering all candidates
- Pastors may endorse personally, off the pulpit, with a disclaimer

DON'T

- Endorse or oppose a candidate from the pulpit, bulletin or website
- Give money, space or staff to a campaign or PAC
- Hand out voter guides slanted toward a candidate or party
- Invite only one candidate to speak or single them out
- Rate candidates or tell members how to vote for a person
- Use church email lists or social accounts for a campaign
- Target GOTV only at voters likely to back one side

Source: IRS Publication 1828, Tax Guide for Churches and Religious Organizations, and Rev. Rul. 2007-41. General information, not legal advice.

STAYING WITHIN IRS RULES

Get-out-the-vote Without Risking Your 501(c)(3)

GOTV activity	Safe when you...	Risky when you...
Registration drive	Open to all; help anyone register	Register only likely supporters of one side
Rides to the polls	Announced to everyone; no candidate talk	Only certain precincts or chosen voters
Calls, texts, reminders	"Make your plan" messages to your whole list	Naming a candidate, party or "values candidate"
Candidate forum	Every qualified candidate, neutral moderator, broad issues	One candidate, or questions built to favor a side
Candidate at worship	Recognized without speaking, or non-campaign role	Addresses the congregation during the campaign
Church resources	Hall rented to any candidate at the usual rate	Free space, lists, money or staff time

The IRS test: GOTV is allowed "if conducted in a non-partisan manner." It crosses the line if it shows a preference for or against a candidate, or has the effect of favoring one, even without naming anyone.

Where the Law Stands and a Pre-event Checklist

Plan as if the endorsement ban applies

- July 2025: the IRS proposed a consent decree letting two Texas churches endorse candidates to their congregations.
- March 31, 2026: a federal judge rejected it.
- September 2026: the Justice Department asked an appeals court to revive it.
- New Treasury and IRS guidance has been signaled but not issued.

None of this changes GOTV: registration and turnout work has always been permitted when nonpartisan. Consult a nonprofit attorney before any candidate-related activity.

Before any GOTV event, check:

- ☐ It is open to everyone, not targeted by likely vote
- ☐ No candidate, party or campaign logo in any materials
- ☐ Volunteers answer, "Who should I vote for?" with "We don't endorse; here's a nonpartisan guide"
- ☐ You would run it the same way for every candidate

FAITH AND DISCERNMENT

Voting Your Values

1

Pray or reflect

Begin in silence, prayer or meditation.

2

Name your values

Write the 3–5 faith commitments that matter most in public life.

3

Study the ballot

Read nonpartisan guides, candidate statements and full ballot measures.

4

Weigh with humility

No candidate matches every value. Consider character, competence and consequences.

5

Decide and act in peace

Vote, then extend grace to neighbors who decided differently.

Reflection questions

- Which of my faith's teachings speak most to the issues on this ballot?
- How would each outcome affect the most vulnerable in my community?
- Am I relying on trustworthy sources, or only what I already believe?
- Does this candidate show honesty, humility and respect for others?
- What do local races mean for my neighbors?
- How can I stay in relationship with people who vote differently?

NAACP.

Prayers and Readings

Reading	Theme
Micah 6:8	Do justice, love mercy, walk humbly
Jeremiah 29:7	Seek the welfare of the city
Matthew 22:37–39	Love God and love your neighbor
Galatians 6:10	Do good to all people
Qur'an 4:135	Stand firmly for justice
Qur'an 42:38	Conduct affairs by mutual consultation
Sikh: sarbat da bhala	The well-being of all
Buddhist: Metta Sutta	Loving-kindness toward all beings

A prayer before voting

God, I call upon Your wisdom to help quiet the noise around me so I can hear what is true. Help me weigh my choices with honesty and courage, remembering the hungry, the stranger and the forgotten. Let my vote serve the common good and keep my heart generous toward those who choose differently. Amen.

A prayer for our community

God, we pray for every voter, every candidate and every poll worker. Guard our elections from fear and falsehood. Give our leaders humility and our neighbors patience. Whatever the results, bind us together in care for one another. Amen.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

For Voters: Prepare, Participate, Protect Your Vote

I missed the registration deadline. Can I still vote?

Yes, in CA, IA, MI and VA, even on Election Day. In NC, only during early voting (Oct 15–31). Elsewhere the deadline is final.

How do I know I'm still registered?

Use your state's lookup or got to naacp.org/vote . Recheck if you moved, changed your name or haven't voted lately.

Do I need ID?

Rules vary. Bring a photo ID and a document with your address to be safe and check your state's site.

Can I vote early at any site?

Usually any early site in your county. On Election Day, vote at your assigned place (CA vote centers excepted).

My mail ballot didn't come, or I made a mistake.

Call your county election office for a replacement or vote in person. Bring the unused ballot if you have it.

My name isn't on the list at the polls.

Ask for a provisional ballot and call 866-OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683).

Can I bring notes or wear campaign gear?

Paper notes are allowed in most states. Leave campaign buttons and shirts at home.

NAACP

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

For Clergy and Congregations

Can our church run a voter registration drive?

Yes, if it's open to everyone and never mentions candidates or parties.

Can the pastor share how they're voting?

Not from the pulpit or church channels. Personal capacity, personal time and accounts only.

Can we preach about a ballot measure?

Yes. It counts as lobbying, which must stay an insubstantial part of church activity.

Can churches endorse candidates now?

Not for this election. A proposed IRS settlement was rejected March 31, 2026; the appeal is pending.

Can we bus members to the polls after worship?

Yes. Offer rides to the whole congregation and community; keep campaign talk and gear off the bus.

Can a candidate speak at our church?

Only if every qualified candidate is invited on equal terms, or they appear in a non-campaign role.

Can we hand out voter guides?

Only neutral guides covering all candidates across many issues. Avoid campaign or partisan guides.

What if a church breaks the rule?

The IRS can impose excise taxes and, in serious cases, revoke tax-exempt status. Ask a nonprofit attorney.
