

March 2025 Prayer Calendar

1

David, bishop, patron of Wales

In the words of St. David help us to “be joyful, keep the faith” and do the little things in life. Even in these difficult times help us to find joy in unexpected places and give thanks for all the good things in our lives, however small they seem.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Greenside Avenue. Pray for Bosnia and Herzegovina.

2

Sunday before Lent

For the times when we are struggling with life, whatever the reason, may we always feel you near us, helping us to stay calm.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Ellis Lane. Pray for Botswana.

3

For all who are being bullied either physically or mentally. We pray for those who are reluctant to go to school or work, or go home again if they feel unsafe there. We pray for those who are bullied on social media and pray they have the strength of mind to stay away.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Froda Avenue. Pray for Brazil.

4

For all who have had to flee from their own countries to enable them to be safe, we give thanks for those who volunteer to help and support them so they may live a better life.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Woodside Avenue. Pray for Brunei.

5

Ash Wednesday

We are sorry for all the times we have fallen short of your expectations for us. Help us to focus on our repentance this Lent.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Clover Avenue. Pray for Bulgaria.

6

For world leaders that they may work together towards peace and the stability of our world.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Orchard Close. Pray for Burkina Faso.

7
