

Prayer Calendar

March 2026

1

Lent 2 David, bishop, patron of Wales

In the words of St. David help us to “be joyful, keep the faith” and do the little things in life. Help us to find joy in the little things whatever our circumstances, and help us always to give thanks for the good things in our lives, however small. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Bickerton Avenue. Pray for Uzbekistan.

2

Chad, bishop, missionary 672

For all those who live in areas of war and conflict. For those suffering trauma and physical or mental illness as a result. May they find stability and peace.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Tarvin Road. Pray for Vanuatu.

3

For all who have been made redundant or are facing redundancy. May they find new work and in the meantime are able to access the help they need for their daily living.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Ashton Close. Pray for Vatican City (Holy See).

4

For those who are living on the streets, sofa surfing, or living in unsuitable accommodation. We give thanks for the many agencies, charities and individuals helping them find secure places to live. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in High Street. Pray for Venezuela.

5

For the many organisations and agencies working to keep our town a safe place to live.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Lansdowne. Pray for Vietnam.

6

For our local library and all who work there. We give thanks that it is a safe space and also offers many different activities for different age groups. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Hawthorne Road. Pray for Yemen.

7

Perpetua, Felicity and companions, martyrs 203

For those who have suffered or are still suffering for their faith. Especially young or vulnerable people who may be mocked or bullied for believing in you. Help them to be true to you in all areas of their lives.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Howey Lane.

Pray for Zambia.

8

Lent 3

We give thanks that your Gospel message is one for all of us. We are all special in your sight.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Park Court. Pray for Zimbabwe.

9

For all volunteers for the many and diverse charities in our town. Those raising money through charity shops and other means, and those actively working with people to encourage them in various activities.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Main Street. Pray for Afghanistan.

10

For Revd. Elaine and our retired clergy and Andrew our lay Reader. Giving thanks for all they do in your name.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Middle Walk. Pray for Albania.

11

For the different pre-school activities and opportunities in our town. Remembering our Toddler Praise on Wednesday mornings in term time.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Howey Rise. Pray for Algeria.

12

For our weekly Market and all who work there. Also for those who come to buy, both local and from further afield. For the Saturday Artisan Market. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Rodgers Close. Pray for Andorra.

13

For our local vets and all who work in them. Also for local charities who look for and rescue lost animals.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Fountain Lane. Pray for Angola.

14

For the different societies and events at the Community Centre, enabling people to enjoy music, arts, films etc. coming together with others for entertainment. We give thanks for the volunteers who run the centre.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Pollard Avenue. Pray for Antigua and Barbuda.

15

Lent 4 Mothering Sunday

We give thanks for our own Mothers or those who have been like a mother to us. We give thanks for the love and nurturing we have had. We pray for those who did not have this love and nurturing in their lives; may they know your healing love in their lives now.

In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Hillfield. Pray for Argentina.

16

For families and friends. Giving thanks for any support we get from them. We pray for those relationships which have broken down, or become toxic. May we be aware of your healing love in these situations. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Rosewood Avenue. Pray for Armenia.

17

Patrick, bishop, patron of Ireland c.460

For missionaries and all who spread the Gospel message, whether at home or abroad. We pray for those who have not yet heard this message, or on hearing it have rejected it. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Keswick Drive. Pray for Australia.

18

For all who are ill in body, mind or spirit. May they receive the help they need as soon as possible so they may find your healing love. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Riversdale. Pray for Austria.

19

Joseph of Nazareth

We give thanks for Joseph's faithfulness to Mary and the part he played in the life of Jesus. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Riversdale. Pray for Azerbaijan.

20

Cuthbert, bishop, missionary 687

For Foxhill and Diocesan Centres and Retreat houses around the country. May all who go to them receive healing and peace. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Field Way. Pray for Bahamas.

21

Thomas Cranmer, archbishop, Reformation martyr 1556

We give thanks for the life of Thomas Cranmer and the part he played in the history of the Church of England. We pray for all Bishops and Archbishops, giving thanks for the work they do in your name. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in The Willows. Pray for Bahrain.

22

Lent 5

Strengthen our faith Lord, especially in the difficult times of our lives when it seems like everything is going wrong. Help us to remember you are always with us and only you can see the big picture. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Matty's Lane. Pray for Bangladesh.

23

For the green spaces in our town and those surrounding it. We give thanks for those who look after them, so we may all enjoy the benefits of our local parks, gardens and woodlands. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Manley Road. Pray for Barbados.

24

For all the churches in our town. Giving thanks that we are able to work together and individually to show your love to the people of Frodsham. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Dig Lane. Pray for Belarus.

25

Annunciation of our Lord to the Blessed Virgin Mary

We give thanks for the obedience of Mary even though she did not fully understand what this would mean and the sacrifice she would have to make. Help us to obey your call in our own lives. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Martin Road. Pray for Belgium.

26

For the many diverse businesses in Frodsham. Help us to support them, remembering the many local people who work in them. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Quayside. Pray for Belize.

27

For those who are lonely, especially those who have recently been bereaved. Help us to reach out in love to all those we meet. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Carriage Drive. Pray for Benin.

28

For our local council and elected representatives. Help them to remember they are working for the good of our town, and represent the wishes of the majority of its people. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Coniston Drive. Pray for Bhutan.

29

Palm Sunday

"Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest." We praise Jesus as our King and our Redeemer. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Arran Drive. Pray for Bolivia.

30

Monday of Holy Week

During Holy Week help us to spend time reflecting on your sacrifice and your love which is given for each one of us. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Overton Drive. Pray for Bosnia and Herzegovina.

31

Tuesday of Holy Week

May we be true followers of Jesus, bearing fruit in our lives, so we may glorify his name. In Frodsham we pray for those who live in Dobers Lane. Pray for Botswana.
