THE EPIC YOUTH NATIONS PROJECT

The Epic Youth Nations is about innovation in youth ministry, design thinking, integration of young people in leadership from 12 and up, and positive impact in local churches.

INNOVATION IN YOUTH MINISTRY

Young people are an incredibly important part of a church's vision and mission. They bring energy, creativity, commitment, and enthusiasm that can be harnessed to help move the church forward and bring about positive change. By giving young people ownership over their roles within the church, they will find new ways to grow in faith, please God, and serve others.

DESIGN THINKING

For this to happen, it is important for every church to prioritize youth ministry as a primary focus and ensure there are dedicated resources available towards its development. The importance of youth ministry should not be underestimated as it has been shown that involving young people in leadership opportunities within the church can have lifelong benefits and lead to a sustainable future for the church.

INTEGRATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE IN LEADERSHIP FROM 12 AND UP

The roles of young people especially from 12 and up in the church are numerous, ranging from serving as leaders on committees or leading service projects to their peers to providing valuable input on decision-making processes. By empowering them with confidence and trust, they can take ownership over their spiritual growth, develop meaningful scholarship and relationships with other youth and adults, and learn how to be active participants in making positive change within their church communities.

POSITIVE IMPACT IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Youth ministry is an incredibly important part of any church's vision and mission. It requires dedication, commitment, energy, and resources but for churches to truly thrive into the future, it is vital that young people are incorporated into every aspect of life within the church community. The value of youth cannot be underestimated and by affording them the opportunity to embrace and own their roles within the church, they can be an integral part of helping it reach its vision.

In short, THE EPIC YOUTH NATIONS MOVEMENT is by design an opportunity for every church leader, youth group leader, youth leaders, and youth pastor to be a part of. Investing in youth ministry is essential for any church's growth and sustainability. By giving young people a platform to operate, the Epic Youth Nations is prioritizing youth ministry as a primary focus of innovation, design thinking, integration of youth in leadership from 12 and up, and positively impact local churches to be able to build strong foundations upon which to grow into the next generation.
