To whom it may concern:

My family had been in the furniture business for over 60 years when we decided to retire. After making such a difficult decision, it was with great trepidation that we began to plan the sale. We looked at several sales promotion companies and decided upon Robert Putt because of his excellent reputation.

I cannot begin to tell you how extraordinarily pleased we were with their performance. Our concerns were quickly put to rest when Robert Putt arrived. He was the perfect fit for our store. He was familiar with the lines we carried as well as recommending the correct merchandise to complement our inventory for additional profit. He managed the entire staff, arranged for all the advertising and handled every detail of the event. I had no qualms whatsoever about leaving the store in his capable hands. The additional sales staff he brought in were equally qualified and appropriate for our store. I applaud him enthusiastically.

Robert and his beautiful wife, Lisa, came to help us as professionals and left us as friends. In the future, if I am ever in a situation that would benefit from a sales/promotion company for whatever reason — I would without reservation request the expertise of Robert Putt again. It is my pleasure to recommend him wholeheartedly.

If you have any questions or concerns, I would be pleased to talk with you about Robert personally.

Sincerely,

Laura Heath
