

I hurt ...

The SHOCKING REVELATION About FORGIVENESS

Let's face it, life is just HARD. We face difficulties on every front: physical, mental, emotional, financial, relational. But does it have to be that way?

Join us for an exciting and informative series, 70X7, by best-selling author and international speaker, Dr. Bruce Wilkinson.

We invite you to come on Wednesday evenings for the 8-weeks of Lent to discover why so many of us suffer these days and what may be done about it.
