

James Cooke.Rps is a multifaceted artist whose passion for photography and poetry intertwines to create a unique lens through which he views the world. With a formative education at The Ferrers Specialist Art College, he honed his artistic skills and cultivated a profound appreciation for the nuances of visual and written expression. As a published author and poet, James carries a treasure trove of stories and memories from his adventures, inviting readers and viewers alike into his captivating universe.

Currently, his work delves into two evocative series centred on mystery and abstraction, reflecting his lifelong admiration for impressionist painters and the eloquent sketches of artistic masters. James's latest images navigate the delicate dance between the tangible and the ephemeral, employing intentional camera motion and rich textures in his botanical photography. His impressionistic style seeks to stir the soul, encouraging the audience to experience the energy and poetry of a moment captured in time, liberated from the constraints of conventional reality

A true wanderer at heart, James also explores portrait photography and travel, infusing his writing with the essence of his journeys. With each click of the shutter and every word penned, he invites you to join him on a visual and literary odyssey
