

Paraphrase and summarize the following passages as accurately as possible, a paragraph or so each.

1. PL 9.205-378
2. PL 9.529-780

1. Prompt

At the beginning of each of the aforementioned passages, something happens that has not happened before. What is it? It’s not necessarily the same thing in each section. And if you don’t get it “right,” no worries. How does Milton use each section to complement the other?

Avoid summary; be specific.

2. “Extra Credit”

1. 10.102-208
2. 10.720-1006

As the Son visits earth to judge Adam and Eve, Adam then seems to judge his wife, perhaps more harshly than she deserves. The Father and Son, however, task Adam with the main responsibility for the Fall, even though it was foreordained along with salvation, what Milton calls “prevenient grace” in the poem. Why is Adam responsible?
